

notice that a proposed consent decree in the case captioned United States v. Cuyahoga Management Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. IP97-1599C Y/S (S.D. Ind.), was lodged with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana on June 30, 1999. The proposed consent decree relates to the Ingram-Richardson Superfund Site and the Augustus-Hook Superfund Site, both located near Frankfort in Clinton County, Indiana. The proposed consent decree would resolve certain civil claims of the United States for recovery of past response costs under section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9607, against all seven defendants in the pending litigation concerning the two Sites, namely Cuyahoga Management Corporation; John B. Hook; Albert A. Augustus; Edward P. Cawley; Hook Associates; 815 Realty, Inc.; and Augustus & Hook Associates (f/k/a Chester Associates). The proposed consent decree would require the seven Settling Defendants to pay the United States a total of $2.75 million ($1419 million for the Ingram-Richardson Site and $1.331 million for the Augustus-Hook Site)

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed consent decree. Notice of Proposed Consent Decree

In accordance with 28 CFR 50.7(b), notice is hereby given that proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Equus Farms, Inc., Civil Action No. 99-WM-1215 (D. Colo.), was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Colorado on June 29, 1999. Final approval of the proposed Consent Decree is subject to the requirements of 28 CFR 50.7.

In this case, the United States filed suit against Equus Farms, Inc. and The Anschutz Corporation for alleged violations of Clean Water Act section 301 and 404. The Complaint states that the defendants discharged dredged or fill material into waters of the United States at a site near the town of Masters, Colorado, without a permit issued by the United States Army Corps of Engineers.

The United States and the defendants have reached agreement on the terms of a proposed consent Decree. Under the proposed settlement, the defendants would perform restoration and mitigation, and pay a civil penalty.

The Department of Justice will receive written comments on the proposed Consent Decree or a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice. Comments should be addressed to Joshua E. Swift, Trial Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice, Environment & Natural Resources Division, Environmental Defense Section, P.O. Box 23986, Washington, DC 20026, and refer to United States v. Equus Farms, Inc., Civil Action No. 99-WM-1215 (D. Colo.), DJ# 90-5-1-1-05453.

The proposed Consent Decree may be examined at the Clerk's Office, United States District Court for the District of Colorado, 1929 Stout Street, Room C-145, Denver, Colorado (303) 844-3433).

Letitia J. Grishaw,
Chief, Environmental Defense Section,
Environment & Natural Resources Division.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Settlement Pursuant to the Clean Air Act

In accordance with Department policy, 28 CFR 50.7, notice is hereby given that on June 28, 1999, a Complaint and a proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Lion Oil Company, (W.D. AK) (Civil No. 99-1080), were lodged with the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Arkansas, El Dorado Division. The United States filed its Complaint in this action simultaneously with the Consent Decree, on behalf of the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") pursuant to section 113 of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7413. The Complaint seeks injunctive relief and civil penalties for violations of the Clean Air Act ("CAA" or "the Act") and regulations promulgated thereunder at Lion Oil's refinery in El Dorado, Arkansas.

The Complaint alleged that Lion Oil Company violated numerous testing, reporting and emission minimization requirements of the CAA's New Source Performance Standards ("NSPS"), 40 CFR part 60, Subparts A, Kb, J, VV and GGG, promulgated under section 111 of the CAA 42 U.S.C. 7411. The violations stemmed primarily from Oil's failure to conduct required tests of various units at the refinery. Because Lion Oil never conducted the tests, the company also violated notification and reporting requirements under the Act and implementing regulations.

Under the terms of the settlement, Lion Oil will pay a $90,000 civil penalty and will perform three Supplemental Environmental Projects ("SEPs") at an estimated cost to the company of $687,635 and with a demonstrated aggregate net present value under the Decree of $311,364.50. The SEPs involve water conservation reuse measures that will greatly reduce Lion Oil's draw on the local qualifer, which is the sole source of drinking water in the area, as well as minimize the discharge of thermal pollution in the El Dorado community.

Lion Oil's satisfaction of all the requirements of the Decree will constitute a full settlement of the violations alleged in the United States' Complaint.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments concerning the proposed Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General of the Environment and Natural Resources Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530, and should refer
