

4. Redelelegation:

a. The duties, powers, rights, obligations and functions delegated under this Order to the Assistant Secretary for Management and Chief Financial Officer may be redelegated. Any person receiving such a redelegation shall be the "Secretary's designee" for that purpose.

b. To the extent authorized by the Revitalization Act, the Assistant Secretary for Management and Chief Financial Officer may confer upon any person or other entity outside the Department of the Treasury any duties, rights, powers, obligations, and functions delegated under paragraph 1 of this Order, except the function described in paragraph 2 above. Any person or other entity upon whom such authority is conferred shall be the "Secretary's designee" for that purpose.

5. Any action by an officer or employee of the Department previously taken pursuant to Treasury Order 101-5, "Reporting Relationships and Supervision of Officials, Offices and Bureaus, Delegation of Certain Authority, and Order of Succession in the Department of the Treasury," or other authority in connection with the Retirement Programs, is hereby ratified and approved.

Robert E. Rubin,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Office of Foreign Assets Control

Proposed Collection; Electronic License Application Form

AGENCY: Office of Foreign Assets Control, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Department of the Treasury, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the Office of Foreign Assets Control's Electronic License Application Form information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13 (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Electronic Form for OFAC License Applications.

OMB Number: 1505-0170.

Abstract: Transactions prohibited pursuant to the Trading With The Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. 1-44, and the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1701, may be authorized by means of specific licenses issued by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). Such licenses are issued in response to applications submitted by persons or institutions whose property has been blocked or who wish to engage in transactions that would otherwise be prohibited. This form—which provides a standardized method for all applicants and is available in electron form on our website—was new upon OMB's initial approval in December 1998. Applicants are not required to use the form. However, its use greatly facilitates and speeds applicants' submissions and OFAC's processing of applications and obviates the need for applicants to write lengthy letters to OFAC, thus reducing the overall burden of the application process.

Current Action: Extension.

Type of Review: Extension.

Affected Public: Individuals/businesses and other for-profit institutions/banking institutions.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 2,751.

Estimated Time Per Respondent: 30 minutes.

Estimated Annual Burden Hours: 1,376.

BILLING CODE 4810-25-P

UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

Educational Advising in Mexico City, Mexico

NOTICE: Request for proposals.

SUMMARY: The Office of Academic Programs/Advising Teaching, and Specialized Programs Division of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the United States Information Agency announces an open competition to operate an educational advising center in Mexico City, Mexico. Public and private non-profit organizations meeting the provisions described in IRS regulation 26 CFR 1.501(c) may submit proposals for administering an advising center in Mexico City. The educational advising center would be part of USIA's worldwide network of 450 affiliated centers. These centers provide comprehensive and unbiased information to interested students, scholars, and other individuals about study opportunities in the US.

For applicants' information, on October 1, 1999, the Bureau will become part of the United States Department of State without affecting the content of this announcement or the nature of the program described.

Program information

Overview

The advising center in Mexico City should provide access to comprehensive and unbiased information about study opportunities in the US. Services provided by the center must include group and/or individual advising informational sessions. The advising center should provide accurate information and advising on the following topics: US colleges, universities, and other higher education institutions; the application process to a US university; majors and fields of study; testing requirements; life in the US; scholarship programs and financial aid; and predeparture orientation. Advisers will be eligible for training opportunities sponsored by the Agency, which will also provide a limited selection of reference books and materials to the center.

Guidelines

The period of this grant is October 1, 1999 to September 30, 2000.

Final awards cannot be made until funds have been appropriated by Congress, allocated and committed through internal USIA procedures.

Programs must comply with J-1 visa regulations. Please refer to Solicitation Package for further information.

Budget Guidelines

Applicants must submit a comprehensive budget for the entire program. Awards may not exceed $70,000. There must be a summary budget as well as breakdowns reflecting both administrative and program budgets. Applicants may provide separate sub-budgets for each program component, phase, location, or activity to provide clarification.

Allowable costs for the program include the following:

- (1) Salaries and benefits.
- (2) Office supplies and expenses, including rent, communications, postage and shipping.
- (3) Outreach and publicity costs.
- (4) Indirect costs.

Please refer to the Solicitation Package for complete budget guidelines and formatting instructions.

Announcement Title and Number

All correspondence with USIA concerning this RFP should reference the above title and number E/ASA-00-03.
