

for the purposes of 40 CFR 61.05. This information is being collected to assure compliance with 40 CFR part 61, subpart N. The EPA is charged under section 112 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, to establish standards of performance for each category or subcategory of major sources and area sources of hazardous air pollutants. These standards are applicable to new or existing sources of hazardous air pollutants and shall require the maximum degree of emission reduction. Owners or operators of the affected facilities described are subject to the recordkeeping and reporting requirements in the NESHAP general provisions and the requirements of 40 CFR part 61, subpart N. The regulation requires initial notifications including construction, modifications, CMS demonstration, and performance testing. Owners or operators are also required to maintain records of the occurrence and duration of any startup, shutdown, or malfunction in the operation of an affected facility, or any period during which the monitoring system is inoperative. Monitoring requirements specific to NESHAP subpart N, National Emission Standard for Inorganic Arsenic Emissions from Glass Manufacturing Plants provide information on the operation of the emissions control device and compliance with the emission limit. Records and reports of approved control device bypass are required. Arsenic emission estimates and semiannual reports of uncontrolled Arsenic emission rates are required. These notifications, reports, and records are essential in determining compliance. All requirements are mandatory under 40 CFR part 61, subpart N. Any owner or operator subject to the provisions of this part shall maintain a file of these measurements, and retain the file for at least 2 years following the date of such measurements, reports, and records.

Approximately 47 sources are currently subject to the standard. There continues to be on growth in this industry, and it is estimated that no new sources will become subject to the standard in the next three years. All reports are sent to the delegated State or Local authority. In the event that there is no such delegated authority, the reports are sent directly to the EPA Regional Office.
