

clarifying questions. In addition, representatives of the USDA will provide ideas on possible risk management for methyl parathion.

Technical briefings are part of the pilot public participation process that EPA and USDA are now using for involving the public in the reassessment of pesticide tolerances under the Food Quality Protection Act (FQPA), and the reregistration of individual organophosphate pesticides under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (FIFRA). The pilot public participation process was developed as part of the EPA-USDA Tolerance Reassessment Advisory Committee (TRAC), which was established in April 1998 as a subcommittee under the auspices of EPA's National Advisory Council for Environmental Policy and Technology. A goal of the pilot public participation process is to find a more effective way for the public to participate at critical junctures in the Agency's development of organophosphate risk assessment and risk management decisions. EPA and USDA began implementing this pilot process in August 1998 in response to Vice President Gore's directive to increase transparency and opportunities for stakeholder consultation.

On the day of the technical briefing, in addition to making copies available at the meeting site, the Agency will also release for public viewing the methyl parathion revised risk assessments and related documents to the Public Information and Records Integrity Branch and the OPP Internet web site that are described in Unit I.B.1. of this document. In the near future, the Agency will issue a Federal Register notice to provide an opportunity for a 60-day public participation period during which the public may submit recommendations and proposals for transition.

July 26, 1999.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burden invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13. #### SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB Control Number: 3060-0564.
Title: Section 76.924 Allocation to service cost categories.

Form Number: N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business and other for-profit entities.

Number of Respondents: 50.
Estimated Time Per Response: 40 hours.

Frequency of Response: Once.
Total Annual Burden: 2,000 hours.
Total Annual Costs: $0.

Needs and Uses: Section 76.924 of the Commission's rules specifies cost accounting and cost allocation requirements for regulated cable operators. Section 76.924 was established as part of the cable rate regulation requirements set forth in the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992 ("1992 Cable Act"). This collection (3060-0564) accounts for the burden imposed on cable operators to rearrange their accounting records to be in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 76.924. At this time, that burden should be considered a one-time only recordkeeping requirement for new cable operators. The original requirements set forth in Section 76.924 became effective July 21, 1993. Existing operators are therefore assumed to have already rearranged their accounting records and are in compliance with this recordkeeping requirement.

Information derived from accounting records that are arranged in compliance with Section 76.924 is used by the cable operators themselves when completing rate filings and by local franchising authorities when reviewing rate filings.

Federal Communications Commission.
