

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYFederal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. PR96-7-003]*Transok, LLC; Notice of Petition for Rate Approval

August 5, 1999.

Take notice that on July 23, 1999, Transok, LLC (Transok) submitted for filing a revised fuel tracker mechanism for its Anadarko System. The revised mechanism is intended to reduce year to year variations in the fuel percentage, and institutes a separate charge for low pressure compression services, capped at 2% at each stage of compression. Transok proposes to reduce the current fuel percentage from 2.09% to 0.73%. Transok seeks an effective date of September 1, 1999.

Any person desiring to participate in this rate proceeding must file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission on or before August 12, 1999. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make Protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYFederal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. RP99-451-000]*Williams Gas Pipelines Central, Inc.; Notice of Filing of Refund Report

August 4, 1999.

Take notice that on July 29, 1999, Williams Gas Pipelines Central, Inc. (Williams), tendered for filing its interruptible excess refund report for the month of October 1993.

Williams states that Article 12 of the General Terms and Conditions of its FERC Gas Tariff specifies that Williams will file an interruptible excess refund report within 30 days of a final Commission order accepting new rates. Based on the Commission's March 5, 1999, order in Docket No. RP93-109, Williams' revenue crediting mechanism set forth in Article 12 applies to the month of October 1993. Article 12 also provides that Williams will mail any refunds, including interest pursuant to Section 154.501 of the Commission's regulations, within 10 days following a final Commission order accepting the report. Williams proposes to refund approximately $1.2 million, including interest calculated through July 31, 1999.

Williams states that a copy of its filing was served on all of Williams' jurisdictional customer and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before August 11, 1999. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
