Johansen Brothers Shoe Company, Inc., Harrisburg, Arkansas and Corning, Arkansas; Notice of Termination of Certification

This notice terminates the Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance issued by the Department on July 14, 1999, applicable to all workers of Johansen Brothers Shoe Company, Inc. located in Harrisburg and Corning, Arkansas. The notice will soon be published in the Federal Register.

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the worker certification. The workers were engaged in employment related to the production of women's casual and dress shoes. Findings on review show that on July 2, 1999, the Department issued a certification of eligibility applicable to all workers of Johansen Brothers Shoe Company, Inc., Corning, Arkansas (TA-W-36,109), and Harrisburg, Arkansas (TA-W-36,109A). Workers separated from employment with the subject firm on or after April 7, 1998 through July 2, 2001, are eligible to apply for worker adjustment assistance.

Based on this new information, the Department is terminating the certification for petition number TA-W-36,230 and TA-W-36,230A. Further coverage for workers under this certification would serve no purpose, and the certification has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 2nd day of August 1999.

Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Including Workers of Ethicon, Inc., Kelly Services, Inc., and Altemp, Arlington, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Workers Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 25, 1999, applicable to workers of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc. located in Arlington, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 11, 1999 (64 FR 25372).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce surgical latex gloves. Company information shows that Ethicon, Inc. is the parent firm of Johnson & Johnson Medical located in Arlington, Texas. The company also reports that some workers separated from employment at Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Arlington, Texas had their wages reported under three separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax accounts, at Ethicon, Inc., Kelly Services, Inc., and Altemp, Arlington, Texas. Workers from these companies produced surgical latex gloves at the Arlington, Texas facility of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers from Ethicon, Inc., Kelly Services, Inc., and Altemp who were engaged in the production of surgical latex gloves at Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Arlington, Texas.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc. adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,704 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Arlington, Texas and workers of Ethicon, Inc., Kelly Services, Inc. and Altemp, Arlington, Texas engaged in employment related to the production of surgical latex gloves for Johnson & Johnson Medical, Inc., Arlington, Texas who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 19, 1999 through March 25, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 5th day of August, 1999.

Mead Paper Corporation, Rumford, Maine et al; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 12, 1999, applicable to workers of Mead Paper Corporation, Rumford, Maine. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 27, 1999 (64 22648).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that worker separations will occur in September and December, 1999 at various support function facilities due to the company closing its' Specialty business operations. These facilities provide sales and marketing services for the production of predominantly groundwood coated paper at the Rumford, Maine location of Mead Paper Corporation.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Mead Paper Corporation adversely affected by increased imports.
