DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Health Resources and Services Administration

Availability of the HRSA Preview

AGENCY: Health Resources and Services Administration, HHS.

ACTION: General notice.

SUMMARY: HRSA announces the availability of the HRSA Preview for summer 1999. This edition of the HRSA Preview is a comprehensive review of HRSA’s Fiscal Year 2000 programs. The next edition of the HRSA Preview is scheduled to be published by early winter 1999.

The purpose of the HRSA Preview is to provide the general public with a single source of program and application information related to the Agency’s competitive grant reviews. The HRSA Preview is designed to replace multiple Federal Register notices which traditionally advertised the availability of HRSA’s discretionary funds for its various programs. In this edition of the HRSA Preview, HRSA’s programs which provide funding for loan repayments and scholarships to individuals have been included in the section “Other HRSA Programs.” It should be noted that other program initiatives responsive to new or emerging issues in the health care area and unanticipated at the time of publication of the HRSA Preview may be announced through the Federal Register from time to time. Deadlines or other requirements appearing in the Federal Register are not changed by this notice.

The HRSA Preview contains a description of competitive and additional programs scheduled for review in Fiscal Year 2000 and includes instructions on how to access the Agency for information and receive application kits for all programs announced. Specifically, the following information is included in the HRSA Preview: (1) Program Title; (2) Legislative Authority; (3) Purpose; (4) Eligibility; (5) Estimated Amount of Competition; (6) Estimated Number of Awards; (7) Funding Priorities and/or Preferences; (8) Application Deadline; (9) Projected Award Date; (10) Application Kit Availability; (11) Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) program identification number; and (12) Programmatic contact. Certain other information, including how to obtain and use the HRSA Preview and grant terminology, also may be found in the HRSA Preview.

Grant Terminology
Application Deadlines
Applications will be considered “on time” if they are either received on or before the established deadline date or postmarked on or before the deadline date given in the program announcement or in the application kit materials.

Authorizations
The citations of provisions of the laws authorizing the various programs are provided immediately preceding groupings of program categories.

CFDA Number
The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) is a Government-wide compendium of Federal programs, projects, services, and activities which provide assistance. Programs listed therein are given a CFDA Number.

Cooperative Agreement
A financial assistance mechanism (grant) used when substantial Federal programmatic involvement with the recipient is anticipated by the funding agency during performance of the project.

Eligibility
Authorizing legislation and programmatic regulations specify eligibility for individual grant programs. In general, assistance is provided to nonprofit organizations and institutions, State and local governments and their agencies, and occasionally to individuals. For-profit organizations are eligible to receive awards under financial assistance programs unless specifically excluded by legislation.

Estimated Amount of Competition
The funding level listed is provided for planning purposes and is subject to the availability of funds.

Funding Priorities and/or Preferences
Special priorities or preferences are those which the individual programs have identified for the funding cycle. Some programs give preference to organizations which have specific capabilities such as telemedicine networking or established relationships with managed care organizations. Preference also may be given to achieve an equitable geographic distribution and other reasons to increase the effectiveness of the programs.

Key Offices
The Grants Management Office serves as the focal point for business matters. A “key” symbol indicates the appropriate office for each program area and the main telephone number for the office.

Matching Requirements
Several HRSA programs require a matching amount, or percentage of the total project support, to come from sources other than Federal funds. Matching requirements are generally mandated in the authorizing legislation for specific categories. Also, matching requirements may be administratively required by the awarding office. Such requirements are set forth in the application kit.

Project Period
The total time for which support of a discretionary project has been programatically approved. The project period usually consists of a series of budget periods of one-year duration. Once approved through initial review, continuation of each successive budget period is subject to satisfactory performance, availability of funds and program priorities.

Review Criteria
The following are generic review criteria applicable to HRSA programs:
• That the estimated costs to the Government of the project is reasonable considering the level and complexity of activity and the anticipated results.
• That project personnel or prospective fellows are well qualified by training and/or experience for the support sought, and the applicant organization or the organization to provide training to a fellow has adequate facilities and manpower.

• That, insofar as practical, the project personnel or prospective fellows have identified for the funding cycle.

• That, insofar as practical, the proposed activities (scientific or other), if well executed, are capable of attaining project objectives.

• That the project objectives are capable of achieving the specific program objectives defined in the program announcement and the proposed results are measurable.
• That the method for evaluating proposed results includes criteria for determining the extent to which the program has achieved its stated objectives and the extent to which the accomplishment of objectives can be attributed to the program.
• That, in so far as practical, the proposed activities, when accomplished, are replicable, national in scope and include plans for broad dissemination.

The specific review criteria used to review and rank applications are included in the individual guidance material provided with the application kits. Applicants should pay strict attention to addressing these criteria as they are the basis upon which their applications will be judged.

Technical Assistance
A contact person is listed for each program and his/her e-mail address and telephone number provided. Some programs have scheduled workshops and conference calls as indicated by the “magnifying glass” in the HRSA Preview. If you have questions concerning individual programs or the availability of technical assistance, please contact the person listed. Also check your application materials and the HRSA web site http://www.hrsa.dhhs.gov/ for the latest technical assistance information.

Frequently Asked Questions
1. Where do I submit grant applications?
The address for submitting your grant application will be shown in the guidance document included in the application kit.
2. HRSA lists many telephone numbers and e-mail addresses. Who do I phone or e-mail and when?
Phone 1-888-333-HRSA until September 12, 1999, to register for application kits. After September 12, the new toll free number will be 1-877-HRSA (4772)-123. It will be helpful to the information specialist if you have the CFDA Number and title of the program handy for reference.
If, before you register, you want to know more about the program, an e-mail/telephone contact is listed. This contact can provide information concerning the specific program’s purpose, scope and goals, and eligibility criteria. Usually, you will be encouraged to request the application kit so that you will have clear, comprehensive and accurate information available to you. The application kit lists telephone numbers for a program expert and a grants management specialist who will provide technical assistance concerning your specific program, if you are unable to find the information within the materials provided.
3. The dates listed in the HRSA Preview and the dates in the application kit do not agree. How do I know which is correct?
First, register at 1-888-333-HRSA until September 12, 1999 for each program that you are interested in as shown in the HRSA Preview. After September 12, the new toll free number will be 1-877-HRSA (4772)-123.
HRSA Preview dates for application kit availability and application receipt deadline are based upon the best known information at the time of publication, often nine months in advance of the competitive cycle. Occasionally, the grant cycle does not begin as projected and dates must be adjusted. The deadline date stated in your application kit is correct. If the application kit has been made available and subsequently the date changes, notification of the change will be mailed to known recipients of the application kit. Therefore, if you are registered at 1-888-333-HRSA or 1-877-HRSA (4772)-123 after September 12, you will receive the most current information.
4. Are programs announced in the HRSA Preview ever canceled?
Infrequently, programs announced may be withdrawn from competition. If this occurs, a cancellation notice will be provided through the HRSA Preview at the HRSA Homepage http://www.hrsa.dhhs.gov/.
If you still have unanswered questions, please contact John Galiicchio of the Grants Policy Branch at 301-443-6507 (jgallicchio@hsa.gov).

Alternative education methodologies provide an effective and economical means for professional staff to enhance and advance their skills while continuing to meet their daily on-site responsibilities. MCH managers need timely and available information to complete the functions for assessing need, developing policies and programs, addressing and resolving problems, monitoring progress and evaluating performance. Analytical skills are needed to convert data to information to better serve mothers and children living in high risk circumstances. This grant program encourages the development, implementation, creative utilization and application of distance education opportunities for the State and local MCH communities to improve the delivery of health care services to mothers and children. Courses will be developed and given annually using distance learning modalities and delivered to State and local MCH staffers. Technical support for specific analytical tasks will be provided via the Internet, compact discs and via satellite broadcasts to State and local agencies. Projects will work collaboratively with each other and the MCH Bureau to develop common formats, tools and approaches.

Purpose

The Ph.D. Fellows grant was established to develop and promote epidemiologic analysis as a part of MCH health training program operations. It is intended to attract MCH doctoral students to the field of epidemiologic analysis and produce publications that further policy and program development. Currently, literature on the application of epidemiology to children's health is scarce. Little data and analysis is available on the effectiveness and benefits of child health services and information needed to improve resource allocation decisions. The purpose of this program is to increase the number of doctoral candidates and postdoctoral fellows who elect a relevant MCH epidemiologic analysis issue, applied to MCH service delivery, as the basis for their research and dissertation. Candidates and fellows are to produce creative, well thought out, dissertation subjects of interest that reflect the current trend of MCH and how the field of economic and epidemiologic analysis impacts upon it. This funding will support:

1. Recruitment and enrollment of 6 doctoral students who will develop dissertations with an emphasis on epidemiologic analysis.
2. Enhancement of student analytic capability as well as improved understanding of the epidemiologic of MCH services.
3. Development of publishable materials for distribution to the broader MCH community.

Authorization
Social Security Act, Title V, 42 U.S.C. 701.

Purpose
Quality Child Care, which pays attention to health and safety and protecting children from harm, is often a function of quality State licensure regulations and guidelines as well as local support. This support is best carried out by child care health consultants at the local level who train and support child care providers and families and assure that the child care guidelines are carried out. Child care health consultants are a new type of health professional. They view child care as a focal point for identifying children in need of health coverage including Medicaid and CHIP, and as a place to help families identify a medical home for their child. The MCHB funded the National Training Institute (NTI) for Child Care Healthy Consultants in 1996 to provide standardized training using Caring for Our Children and Stepping Stones as a basis of the curriculum. The model is “train the trainer,” and there is a distance learning component as well as on-site. The expected outcome is statewide networks of child care health consultants to the local level in every State.

Purpose
The CISS program is designed to enhance the development of service systems at the community level to address the physical, psychological, social well-being, and related needs of pregnant women, infants, and children, including children with special health care needs and their families. CISS programs should be designed to assist communities to better meet consumer identified needs, fill gaps in services, reduce duplication of effort, coordinate activities, increase availability of services, improve efficiency, and enhance quality of care. Programs must be developed in collaboration and coordination with the State MCH Services Block Grant programs and State efforts in community systems development.

Eligibility
42 CFR Part 51a.3*

Funding Priorities and/or Preferences
In keeping with the goals of advancing the development of human potential, strengthening the Nation's capacity to provide high quality education by broadening participation in MCHB programs of institutions that may have perspectives uniquely reflecting the Nation's cultural and linguistic diversity, and increasing opportunities for all Americans to participate in and benefit from Federal public health programs, HRSA will place a funding priority on projects from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) or Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSI) in all categories and subcategories in this notice for which applications from academic institutions are encouraged. This is in conformity with the Federal Government's policies in support of White House Initiatives on Historically Black Colleges and Universities (Executive Order 12876) and Educational Excellence for Hispanic Americans (Executive Order 12900).

An approved proposal from an HBCU or HSI will receive a 0.5 point favorable adjustment of the priority score in a 4 point range before funding decisions are made.

Special Considerations
In the interest of equitable geographic distribution, special consideration for funding will be given to projects from communities without a currently funded CISS project.

Authorization

Purpose
The purpose of this grant program is to support communities and health care service entities in their planning efforts to develop a high quality and broad scope of primary health care services for
Purpose

Organizations should be able to demonstrate expertise in the coordination or provision of comprehensive medical and social services to children, youth, women and families. The purpose of the Title IV funding is to improve access to primary medical care, research and support services for children, youth, women and families infected with HIV. Funded projects will link clinical research and other research with comprehensive care systems and improve and expand the coordination of a system of comprehensive care for women, infants, children and youth who are infected/affected by HIV. Funds will be used to support programs that: (1) Cross established systems of care to coordinate service delivery, HIV prevention efforts, and clinical research and other research activities; and (2) address the intensity of service needs, high costs, and other complex barriers to comprehensive care and research experienced by underserved, at-risk and limited populations. Activities under these grants should address the goals of: enrolling and maintaining clients in HIV primary care; increasing client access to research by linking HIV/AIDS clinical research trials and activities with comprehensive care; fostering the development and support of comprehensive, community-based and family centered care infrastructures; and emphasizing prevention within the care system, particularly the prevention of perinatal HIV transmission.

Eligibility

Eligible organizations are public or private nonprofit entities that provide or arrange for primary care.

Limited Competition

Applicants are limited to currently funded Title IV programs whose project periods expire in FY 2000 and new organizations proposing to serve the same populations currently being served by these existing projects. These areas are:

Authorization

Public Health Service Act, Title III, Section 330A, 42 U.S.C. 254c.

Purpose

The purpose of this program is to expand access to, coordinate, restrain the cost of, and improve the quality of essential health care services, including preventive and emergency services through the development of integrated health care delivery systems or networks in rural areas and regions. Funds are available for projects to support the direct delivery of health care and related services, to expand existing services, or to enhance health service delivery through education, promotion, and prevention programs. The emphasis is on the actual delivery of specific services rather than the development of organizational capabilities. Projects may be carried out by networks of the same providers (e.g. all hospitals) or more diversified networks.

Eligibility

A rural public or nonprofit private organization, that is part of a network of at least three entities that support the delivery of health care services and will work together to complete the proposed project, is eligible to apply. The administrative headquarters of the organization must be located in a rural county or in a rural census tract of an urban county, or the applicant organization must be constituted exclusively to provide services to migrant and seasonal farmworkers in rural areas and supported under Section 330(g) of the Public Health Service (PHS) Act. Organizations that provide services to migrant and seasonal farmworkers in rural areas and supported under Section 330(g) of the PHS Act are eligible regardless of the urban or rural location of the administrative headquarters.

Funding Priorities and/or Preferences

Funding preference may be given to applicant networks that include: (1) A majority of the health care providers serving in the area or region to be served by the network; (2) any Federally Qualified Health Center, Rural Health Clinic, and local public health department serving in the area or region; (3) outpatient mental health providers serving in the area or region; or (4) appropriate social service providers, such as agencies on aging, school systems, and providers under the women, infants, and children (WIC) program, to improve access to and coordination of health care services.

Special Considerations

An applicant organization’s central headquarters must be located in a rural area. (A list of eligible rural areas is included in the application kit.)

Review Criteria

Final criteria are included in the application kit.

The administrative headquarters of the organization must be located in a rural county or in a rural census tract of an urban county, or an organization constituted exclusively to provide services to migrant and seasonal farmworkers in rural areas and supported under Section 330(g) of the Public Health Service Act. Emphasis is placed on community-based training of primary care oriented students, residents, and providers. The Area Health Education Centers (AHEC) program assists schools in the development, and operation of AHECs to implement educational system incentives to attract and retain health care personnel in scarcity areas. By linking the academic resources of the university health science center with local planning, educational and clinical resources, the AHEC program establishes a network of health-related institutions to provide educational services to students, faculty and practitioners and ultimately to improve the delivery of health care in the service area. These programs are collaborative partnerships which address current health workforce needs within a region of a State or in an entire State.

Eligibility

The types of entities eligible to apply for this program include public or private nonprofit accredited schools of medicine and osteopathic medicine and incorporated consortia made up of such schools, or the parent institutions of such schools. Applicants must also have previously received funds, but are no longer receiving funds under Section 751(a)(1) of the Public Health Service Act, and are operating an AHEC program.

Funding Priorities and/or Preferences

Statutory Funding Preference: As provided in Section 791(a) of the Public Health Service Act, preference will be given to any qualified applicant that: (A) Has a high rate of placing graduates in practice settings having the principal focus of serving residents of medically underserved communities; or (B) during the two-year period preceding the fiscal year for which an award is sought, has achieved a significant increase in the rate of placing graduates in such settings. This statutory general preference will only be applied to applications that rank above the 20th percentile of applications recommended for approval by the peer review group.

Funds shall be awarded to approved applicants in the following order: (1) Competing continuations, (2) new starts in States with no AHEC program, (3) other new starts, and (4) competing supplementals.

Matching Requirements

Awardees shall make available (directly or through contributions from State, county or municipal governments, or the private sector) recurring non-Federal contributions in cash in an amount not less than 50 percent of the operating costs of the Model State-Supported AHEC Program.

The overall approach that HRSA follows is focused on:

Primary Health Care for the Poor, Uninsured and Isolated
• HRSA supports a network of primary care health centers that deliver primary care—preventing disease and treating illness—in underserved areas. Each year, more than 9 million Americans receive care through HRSA health centers. More than half of those receiving care are members of working families with no health insurance.

Health Care for Americans With Special Health Care Needs
• A major HRSA focus is on the health of mothers, children and youth, particularly minority, low-income and uninsured individuals and families who face barriers to needed health services, such as prenatal care and immunization. Through the Maternal and Child Health Block Grant, each State assesses the health care needs of its pregnant women, children and adolescents, then develops and implements a plan to meet them.

Ryan White CARE Act programs are designed to help people with HIV/AIDS live better and longer. Funding provides health and support services for under-or uninsured people with HIV/AIDS. The AIDS Drug Assistance Programs are designed to make available the latest therapeutic approaches to care for those who would not otherwise have access to such care.

Training Health Professionals to Serve the Underserved

• HRSA supports a variety of community-based training programs to train the next generation of physicians, nurses and other health professionals to work effectively in managed care, to become productive members of health care teams, and to increase the provision of services in underserved areas.

Approach to Performance Measurement

HRSA has made a strong effort to build a performance management approach into the way it conducts its business. The agency structured the development of its internal strategic planning process to be consistent with the requirements of the Government Performance and Results Act. The goals developed in the process have guided the development of our Annual Performance Plans.
As part of that process, the agency outlined the central assessment question of organizational performance:
Can this organization, with a given set of resources, through a series of actions and decisions, produce outputs that have the desired effects and outcomes to benefit those it serves?
Technical assistance has been provided to each of the operating components to enhance ability to define performance goals and measures.
