Notice Pursuant To The National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Siemens Westinghouse: Ceramic Matrix Composites For Advanced Engine Components

Notice is hereby given that, on July 20, 1999, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), Siemens Westinghouse: Ceramic Matrix Composites for Advanced Engine Components has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties; and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are Siemens Westinghouse Power Corporation, Orlando, FL; Engineered Ceramics, Incorporated, San Diego, CA; and Solar Turbines, Incorporated, San Diego, CA. The nature and objectives of the venture are to demonstrate the proof-of-concept viability for new ceramic matrix composite materials for gas turbine engines for the power generation industry under the subject Advanced Technology Program of NIST. The activities of the joint venture will be partially funded by an award from the Advanced Technology Program, National Institute of Standards and Technology, Department of Commerce.

Office of Justice Programs

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention; Proposed Information Collection Activity; Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; New collection; Survey of youth in residential placement.

The Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), has submitted the following information collection required for review and clearance in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty days" until November 1, 1999.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Joseph Moone, 202-307-5929, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice, 810 7th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20531.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information should address one or more of the following four points:

- (1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- (2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information:

- (1) Type of Information Collection: New collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Survey of Youth in Residential Placement.

(3) Agency form number: None.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract:
