

considering issues and concerns on the proposed action, comments on the Draft EIS should be as specific as possible. It is also helpful if comments refer to specific pages or chapters of the draft statement. Comments may also address the adequacy of the Draft EIS or the merits of the alternatives formulated and discussed in the statement. Reviewers may wish to refer to the Council on Environmental Quality regulations for implementing the procedural provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act at 40 CFR 1503.3 in addressing these points.

Freedom of Information

Comments, including names and street addresses of respondents, will be available for public review at the addresses listed above during regular business hours (7:45 a.m.–4:30 p.m.), Monday through Friday, except holidays, and may be published as part of the Final EIS. Individual respondents may request confidentiality. If you wish to withhold your name or street address from public review or from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your written comment. Such requests will be honored to the extent allowed by law. All submissions from organizations or businesses, and from individuals identifying themselves as representatives or officials of organizations or businesses, will be made available for public inspection in their entirety. Proprietary data so marked shall be treated in accordance with the laws and regulations governing the confidentiality of such information.

Notice of Meeting

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Lewistown Field Office.

ACTION: Notice of meeting.

SUMMARY: The Central Montana Resource Advisory Council will meet September 22 and 23, 1999, at the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center, in Great Falls, Montana.

The September 22 portion of the meeting will begin at 8:00 am. The day's business will include an introduction of new council members, field manager updates, BLM presentations about public land features in the Missouri River Breaks (current management, issues, future management, etc.) and a report about the formation of a council sub-group. A primary entry on the day's agenda will be accepting public comments concerning the future management of public lands in the Missouri River Breaks area of north central Montana. The BLM is interested in maintaining the special cultural, historical and scenic values of these lands and is considering a designation of some level as a means of recognizing while maintaining these values as well as benefiting local communities and lifestyles. The council will hear presentations from groups and organizations from 12:45 pm through 5:00 pm. Then from 7:00 pm through 9:00 pm that evening, the council will host a public comment period for individuals.

The September 23 portion of the meeting will begin at 9:00 am. From 9:00 am through 11:00 am, the council will continue the public comment period for individuals concerning the future management of public lands in the Missouri River Breaks. The remainder of the day will consist of a discussion of business topics along with council members' reports on the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial, and administrative arrangements for the council's next meeting.

DATES: September 22 and 23.

LOCATION: Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center, Great Falls, Montana.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Phillips Field Manager, 501 S. 2nd St. E., HC 65, Box 5000, Malta, Montana 59538.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The meeting is open to the public and there will be a formal comment period for groups and organizations and two public comment periods as detailed above.
