

the right to sell or otherwise alienate the Stealer Bundle or and associated items.

Based on the above-mentioned information, officials of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(3), these 28 cultural items are specific ceremonial objects needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Officials of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(4), these 28 cultural items have ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance central to the culture itself, and could not have been alienated, appropriated, or conveyed by any individual. Officials of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these items and the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin and the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these objects should contact Ms. Jennifer Kolb, Director, Museum Archeology Program, State Historical Society of Wisconsin, 816 State Street, Madison, WI 53706; telephone (608) 264-6560; e-mail: jlkolb@mail.shsw.wisc.edu before October 13, 1999. Repatriation of these objects to the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Dated: August 24, 1999.

Notice of Inventory Completion for Native American Human Remains in the Possession of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA

AGENCY: National Park Service

ACTION: Notice

Notice is hereby given in accordance with provisions of the Native American

Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 43 CFR 10.9, of the completion of an inventory of human remains in the possession of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA.

A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by University of Pennsylvania professional staff in consultation with representatives of the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin and the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.

During the 1850s, human remains representing two individuals were removed from an unknown site by P. Gregg. In 1893, these human remains were acquired by the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, PA. In 1966, these remains were placed on loan at the University of Pennsylvania Museum and were officially transferred into the University of Pennsylvania Museum's collections in 1998. No known individuals were identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

Based on original accession information, these individuals have been identified as Native American. Also based on original accession information, these individuals have been identified as Winnebago. No further information exists for these individuals.

Based on the above mentioned information, officials of the University of Pennsylvania Museum have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(1), the human remains listed above represent the physical remains of two individuals of Native American ancestry. Lastly, officials of the University of Pennsylvania Museum have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these Native American human remains and the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin and the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin and the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these human remains should contact Dr. Jeremy Sabloff, the Williams Director, University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, 33rd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6324; telephone: (215) 898-4051, fax (215) 898-0657, before October 13, 1999. Repatriation of the human remains to the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin and the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Dated: August 23, 1999.

Drug Enforcement Administration

[Docket No. 99-12]

Frank D. Jackson, M.D.; Revocation of Registration

On December 17, 1998, the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) issued an Order to Show Cause to Frank D. Jackson, M.D. (Respondent) of Boston, Massachusetts, notifying him of an opportunity to show cause as to why DEA should not revoke his DEA Certificate of Registration AJ8888806 pursuant to 21 U.S.C. 824(a)(4), and deny any pending applications for renewal of such registration pursuant to 21 U.S.C. 823(f), for reason that his continued registration would be inconsistent with the public interest.

By letter dated January 28, 1999, Respondent requested a hearing on the issues raised by the order to Show Cause and the matter was docketed before Administrative Law Judge Mary Ellen Bittner. On February 19, 1999, Judge Bittner issued an Order for Prehearing Statements. The Government filed its prehearing statement on March 10, 1999, but Respondent did not file a prehearing statement.

On April 20, 1999, the Government filed a Motion for Summary Disposition and a Motion to Terminate the Proceedings. The Government's motions alleged that (1) Respondent is not currently licensed to handle controlled substances in the state where he is registered with DEA, and (2) Respondent's failure to file a prehearing statement acts as a waiver of his right to a hearing. Respondent was given until May 18, 1999, to file a response to the Government's motions, yet he did not do so.

On May 27, 1999, Judge Bittner issued her Opinion and Recommended Decision, finding that Respondent lacks authorization to handle controlled substances in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; granting the Government's Motion for Summary Disposition; recommending that
