

the name and place of residence, if known, of the person from whom the property was seized.

d. If upon hearing, the evidence warrants, or if no person appears as a claimant, the Tribal Court shall thereupon enter a determination of forfeiture and order such contraband forfeited to the Tribe and sold or destroyed forthwith.

Section 5. Sovereign Immunity; Appeals

a. The Tribe, and all of its instrumentalities, including, but not limited to tribal enterprises, subordinate organizations, boards, committees, officers, attorneys and agents, are immune from suit in any jurisdiction except to the extent that such immunity has been expressly and unequivocally waived in writing by the Tribe.

b. Except as provided in Section 5.02, nothing in this Ordinance, and no enforcement action taken pursuant to this Ordinance or otherwise, including but not limited to, the holding of any hearing, the grant, denial, suspension, modification, conditioning or revocation of any license, the filing of suit by the Tribal Ogema or Tribal Council to enforce any provision of this Ordinance or other law, shall constitute a waiver of such immunity, either as to the original action, any counterclaim, regardless of whether an asserted counterclaim arises out of the same transaction or occurrence, or in any other respect.

5.02. Limited Waiver of Sovereign Immunity of the Tribe. The Tribe hereby expressly waives its sovereign immunity from suit in the Tribal Court for the limited purpose of an appeal of any decision of the Tribal Council to grant, deny, modify, or condition a license or of the Tribal Council Hearings Commission to suspend or revoke a license or to impose fines. Nothing contained in this section or this Ordinance or in any express waiver of sovereign immunity by resolution of the Tribal Council relating to the regulation of alcoholic beverages shall be deemed a consent to levy of any judgment, lien or attachment upon any property or revenues of the Tribe.

5.03. Appeal to Tribal Court. A person directly affected by any grant, denial, suspension, modification, conditioning or revocation of any license or imposition of fines under this Ordinance, shall have the right to appeal such decision to the Tribal Court. Any such appeal must be filed with the Tribal Court in writing on or before the thirtieth (30th) day following the decision of the Tribal Council or Tribal Ogema, as the case may be. In any case which has been appealed to the Tribal Court for final action, the Tribal Court shall review all findings of fact and of law of the Hearings Commission on the record and pursuant to an "arbitrary and capricious" standard and shall have power to affirm, modify or reverse the decision. Pursuant to Section 5.02, the Tribal Court may only grant injunctive relief and may not grant damages against the Tribe. The Tribal Court's decision shall be final, and no further appeal may be had.
