Diversified Trucking Corporation, a Former Roadmaster Company, Olney, IL; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on August 9, 1999 in response to a worker petition which was filed on behalf of workers at Diversified Trucking Corporation, a former Roadmaster Company, located in Olney, Illinois.

All workers were separated from the subject firm more than one year prior to the date of the petition. Section 223 of the Act specifies that no certification may apply to any worker whose last separation occurred more than one year before the date of the petition. Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, DC this 26th day of August, 1999.

Funtime Sportswear, Inc., Lansford, PA; Moscow, PA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 8, 1999 applicable to all workers of Funtime Sportswear, Inc. located in Lansford, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 11, 1999 (64 FR 43723).

At the request of the petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that worker separations occurred at the Moscow, Pennsylvania location of Funtime Sportswear, Inc. when it closed in April 1999. The workers were engaged in employment related to the production of sports bras and ladies' exercise shorts.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers at the Funtime Sportswear, Inc., Moscow, Pennsylvania location.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Funtime Sportswear, Inc. adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,106 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Funtime Sportswear, Inc., Lansford, Pennsylvania (TA-W-36,106) and Moscow, Pennsylvania (TA-W-36,106A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 12, 1999 through July 8, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 31st day of August, 1999.

Edward A. Tomchick,

Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the
