

employment training and services for people with disabilities to obtain competitive employment. The Activity and Placement Report (APR) gives the number of participants being served, activities and services provided, and placement outcomes. The Participant Characteristics Report (PCR) gives participant information in age, race, type of disability, etc. These funds are taken from the Job Training and Partnership Act (JTPA) Title III and IV. Under Title III of JTPA there is a requirement to have grantees complete quarterly an Activity Placement Report (APR) [29 U.S.C. 1732(2)(c)(III)] and a Standard Form 269 (SF-269). A Participant Characteristic Report (PCR) is submitted annually to provide an overview of participants that were served during the program year [29 U.S.C. 1732(2)(c)(III)]. Respondents submit a narrative as part of the quarterly report package. The narrative states activities of the participants in the organization during the previous three months.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment Standards Administration

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed extension collections of form C-910, Request to be Selected as Payee. A copy of the proposed information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before November 25, 1999.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Request To Be Selected as Payee

I. Background

Benefits are payable by the Department of Labor to coal miners who are totally disabled due to pneumoconiosis and to certain survivors of a miner under the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977, as amended. If a beneficiary is incapable of handling his/her affairs, the person or institution responsible for his/her care is required to apply to receive the benefit payments on the beneficiary's behalf. The CM-910, Request to be Selected as Payee, is the form completed by representative payee applicants.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to assess the applicant's ability to undertake the responsibilities of a representative payee.
