

Small businesses are affected.

General description of report: This information collection is mandatory [12 U.S.C. §§ 222, 248, 282, 287, 288, and 321 and 12 C.F.R. §§ 209.1, 209.3, 209.5(b), 209.7, and 209.8]. Upon request from an applicant, certain information may be given confidential treatment pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act [5 U.S.C. §§ 552(b)(4) and (6)].

Abstract: These applications must be submitted to Federal Reserve Banks by organizing and existing member commercial banks requesting the issuance, adjustment, or cancellation of Federal Reserve Bank stock. National banks, chartered by the Comptroller of the Currency, are required to become members of the Federal Reserve System. State-chartered commercial banks may elect to become members if they meet the requirements established by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. When a bank receives approval for membership in the Federal Reserve System, the bank agrees to certain conditions of membership which are contained in an approval letter sent to the bank by the Federal Reserve Bank in the District where the bank is located. In addition to the conditions of membership, the bank also is advised by the Reserve Bank that it must subscribe to the capital stock of the Federal Reserve Bank of its District in an amount equal to 6 percent of the bank's paid-up capital and surplus, including reserve for dividends payable in common stock, pursuant to Section 5 of the Federal Reserve Act and Regulation I. However, the bank is required to make payment for only 50 percent of the subscription, which is recorded as paid-in capital on the Reserve Bank's balance sheet. The remaining 50 percent is subject to call by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. On December 31, 1998, there were 3,401 Federal Reserve member banks, and their consolidated paid-in capital at the twelve Federal Reserve Banks was $5.6 billion.

These applications are necessary in order to obtain account data on the bank's capital and surplus and to document its request to increase or decrease its holdings of Federal Reserve Bank stock. Another purpose of the applications is to verify that a request has been duly authorized and to prevent unauthorized requests for issuance or cancellation of Federal Reserve Bank stock.

Current Actions The most significant changes are (1) revising the items included in the capital stock and surplus section on the FR 2056, (2) combining the FR 2086a and FR 2086b, and (3) adding an optional field to each of the applications for the institution's ABA number. On the FR 2056, the capital and surplus will be reported as shown on the institution's most recent Report of Condition (instead of on the date of the application). Also, the capital stock section will include common stock, preferred stock (including sinking fund preferred stock), and paid-in surplus less the aggregate of retained earnings, gains(losses) on securities available-for-sale, and foreign currency translation gains or losses, if such aggregate is a deficit. Finally, information on "reserve for dividends payable in common stock" will be deleted.

The FR 2086a will be used for all member banks converting or merging into nonmember banks. This application will now include national banks converting into nonmember banks and therefore the FR 2086b application will be eliminated.

The Certificate of Issuance of Federal Reserve Bank Stock will be eliminated from the FR 2030, FR 2030a, and FR 2056 applications and the Certificate of Cancellation of Federal Reserve Bank stock will be eliminated from the FR 2056, FR 2086, FR 2086a, and FR 2087 applications. Also, minor clarifications will be made to all of the applications to improve consistency and make filing of the applications more expeditious and user-friendly.

2. Report title: Applications for Membership in the Federal Reserve System.

Agency form numbers: FR 2083, 2083A-2083E.

OMB control number: 7100-0046.

Effective date: September 30, 1999.

Frequency: On occasion.

Reporters: Commercial banks and certain mutual savings banks.

Annual reporting hours: 2,805 burden hours

Estimated average hours per response: 35.5 hours.

Number of respondents: 79. Small businesses are affected.

General description of report: This information collection is required [12 U.S.C. §§ 321, 322 and 333]. The information in the application is not confidential; however, parts may be given confidential treatment at the applicant's request [5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4)].

Abstract: The application for membership is a required one-time submission, pursuant to Section 9 of the Federal Reserve Act, that collects the information necessary for the Federal Reserve Board to evaluate the statutory criteria for admission of a new or existing bank to membership in the Federal Reserve System. This application provides managerial, financial, and structural data.

Current Actions: The Federal Reserve will be (1) revising the application to conform with changes to Regulation H, (2) combining the FR 2083B, C, and D, which are filed by mutual savings banks, into one application and (3) replacing Section IV of the application with a reference to the Interagency Biographical and Financial Report (FR 2081c; OMB No. 7100-0134).

With respect to the Regulation H changes, the instructions will be revised as follows: the "Preparation of Application" section will be updated regarding examination and Reserve Bank consultation and would define those institutions that qualify for expedited treatment and the "Public Notification" section will be eliminated. On the FR 2083E, which will be renamed the FR 2083C, references to capital stock will be revised to capital stock and surplus. Capital stock and surplus includes Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital, as calculated under the risk-based capital guidelines, plus any allowance for loan and lease losses not already included in Tier 2 capital.

The FR 2083B, C, and D will be combined in an effort to streamline the applications and Section IV will be replaced with FR 2081c for consistency purposes. Also, the Federal Reserve will incorporate several formatting changes to all of the applications to improve consistency and clarify the information to be reported.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, September 15, 1999.

Secretary of the Board.
