As a result of this review, the Department found that revocation of the antidumping duty order would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and notified the Commission of the magnitude of the margin likely to prevail were the order to be revoked (see Final Results of Expedited Sunset Review: Petroleum Wax Candles from the People's Republic of China, 64 FR 32481 (June 17, 1999)).

On September 8, 1999, the Commission determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the antidumping duty order on petroleum wax candles from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (see Petroleum Wax Candles from the People's Republic of China, 64 FR 48851 (September 8, 1999) and USITC Pub. 3226, Inv. No. 731-TA-282 (Review) (August 1999)).

Scope

The products covered by this order are certain scented or unscented petroleum wax candles made from petroleum wax and having fiber or paper-cored wicks. They are sold in the following shapes: tapers, spirals and straight-sided dinner candles; rounds, columns, pillars, votives; and various wax-filled containers. The products were classified under the Tariff

Determination

As a result of the determinations by the Department and the Commission that revocation of this antidumping duty order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, the Department hereby orders the continuation of the antidumping duty order on petroleum wax candles from China. The Department will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to continue to collect antidumping duty deposits at the rate in effect at the time of entry for all imports of subject merchandise. The effective date of continuation of this order will be the date of publication in the Federal Register of this Notice of Continuation. On September 1, 1998, the Department initiated, and the Commission instituted, a sunset review (63 FR 46410 and 63 FR 46475, respectively) of the antidumping finding on pressure sensitive plastic tape from Italy pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act. As a result of its review, the Department found that revocation of the antidumping finding would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and notified the Commission of the magnitude of the margin likely to prevail were the finding to be revoked (see Final Results of Expedited Sunset Review: Pressure Sensitive Plastic Tape from Italy, 64 FR 853 (January 6, 1999)).

On February 10, 1999, the Commission determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the antidumping finding on pressure sensitive plastic tape from Italy would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (see Pressure Sensitive Plastic Tape from Italy, 64 FR 6681 (February 10, 1999) and USITC Pub. 3157, Inv. ### Scope

The merchandise covered by this antidumping finding is shipments of pressure sensitive plastic tape ("PSPT") measuring over 1 3/8 inches in width and not exceeding 4 mils in thickness from Italy. The above described PSPT is classified under HTS subheadings 3919.90.20 and 3919.90.50. The HTS subheadings are provided for convenience and for U.S. Customs purposes. The written description remains dispositive.

Determination

As a result of the determinations by the Department and the Commission that revocation of this antidumping finding would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, the Department hereby orders the continuation of the antidumping finding on pressure sensitive plastic tape from Italy. The Department will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to continue to collect antidumping duty deposits at the rate in effect at the time of entry for all imports of subject merchandise. Normally, the effective date of continuation of a finding, order, or suspension agreement will be the date of publication in the Federal Register of the Notice of Continuation. As provided in 19 CFR 351.218(f)(4), the Department normally will issue its determination to continue a finding, order, or suspended investigation not later than seven days after the date of publication in the Federal Register of the Commission's determination concluding the sunset review and immediately thereafter will publish its notice of continuation in the Federal Register. In the instant case, however, the Department's publication of the Notice of Continuation was delayed. The Department has explicitly indicated that the effective date of continuation of this finding is February 17, 1999, seven days after the date of publication in the Federal Register of the Commission's determination. As a result, pursuant to sections 751(c)(2) and 751(c)(6)(A) of the Act, the Department intends to initiate the next five-year review of this finding not later than January 2004.

Export Trade Certificate of Review

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of revocation of Export Trade Certificate of Review No. 88-00011.

SUMMARY: The Secretary of Commerce issued an export trade certificate of review to Abdullah Diversified Marketing, Inc. ("ADMI"). Because this certificate holder has failed to file an annual report as required by law, the Secretary is revoking the certificate. This notice summarizes the notification letter sent to ADMI.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Morton Schnabel, Director, Office of Export Trading Company Affairs, International Trade Administration, 202/482-5131. This is not a toll-free number.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title III of the Export Trading Company Act of 1982 ("the Act") (Pub. L. No. 97-290, 15 U.S.C. 4011-21) authorizes the Secretary of Commerce to issue export trade certificates of review. The regulations implementing Title III ("the Regulations") are found at 15 CFR part 325 (1999). Pursuant to this authority, a certificate of review was issued on October 19, 1988 to ADMI.

A certificate holder is required by law to submit to the Department of Commerce annual reports that update financial and other information relating to business activities covered by its certificate (Section 308 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. 4018, Section 325.14(a) of the Regulations, 15 CFR 325.14(a)). The annual report is due within 45 days after the anniversary date of the issuance of the certificate of review (Section 325.14(b) of the Regulations, 15 CFR 325.14(b)). Failure to submit a complete annual report may be the basis for revocation (Sections 325.10(a)(3) and 325.14(c) of the Regulations, 15 CFR 325.10(a)(3) and 325.14(c)).

On October 9, 1998, the Department of Commerce sent to ADMI a letter containing annual report questions with a reminder that its annual report was due on December 3, 1998. Additional reminders were sent on February 10, 1999 and on March 16, 1999. The Department has received no written response from ADMI to any of these letters.

On August 11, 1999, and in accordance with Section 325.10(c)(1) of the Regulations, (15 CFR 325.10 (c)(1)), the Department of Commerce sent a letter by certified mail to notify ADMI that the Department was formally initiating the process to revoke its certificate for failure to file an annual report. In addition, a summary of this letter allowing ADMI thirty days to respond was published in the Federal Register on August 17, 1999 at 64 FR 44689. Pursuant to section 325.10(c)(2) of the Regulations (15 CFR 325.10 (c)(2)), the Department considers the failure of ADMI to respond to be an admission of the statements contained in the notification letter.

The Department has determined to revoke the certificate issued to ADMI for its failure to file an annual report. The Department has sent a letter, dated September 17, 1999, to notify ADMI of its determination. The revocation is effective thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice. Any person aggrieved by this decision may appeal to an appropriate U.S. district court within 30 days from the date on which this notice is published in the Federal Register (325.10(c)(4) and 325.11 of the Regulations, 15 CFR 324.10(c)(4) and 325.11 of the Regulations, 15 CFR 325.10(c)(4) and 325.11).

Dated: September 17, 1999.
