

Regulating Handling of Almonds Grown in California.

3. Member means a person who has membership in CAEA and who has been certified as a "Member" within the meaning of 15 CFR Section 325.2(1) of the Regulations.

Terms and Conditions of Certificate

1. Except as provided in Section 2 of the Export Trade Activities and Methods of Operation above, CAEA and its Members shall not intentionally disclose, directly or indirectly, to any handler (as defined in 7 CFR Section 981.13) of Products (including Members) any information about its or any other handler's costs, production capacity, inventories, domestic prices, domestic sales, domestic orders, terms of domestic marketing or sale, or U.S. business plans, strategies or methods, unless: (1) such information is already generally available to the trade or public; (2) such disclosure is a material part of the negotiations for an actual or potential bona fide sale or purchase of the Products and the disclosure is limited to that prospective purchaser or seller; or (3) such disclosure is made in connection with the administration of the United States Department of Agriculture marketing order for almonds grown in California.

2. Each Member shall determine independently of other Members the quantity of Products the Member will make available for export or sell through CAEA. CAEA may not solicit from any Member specific quantities for export or require any Member to export any minimum quantity of almonds.

3. Meetings at which CAEA allocates export sales among Members and establishes export prices shall not be open to the public.

4. Participation by a Member in any Export Trade Activity or Method of Operation under this Certificate shall be entirely voluntary as to that Member, subject to the honoring of contractual commitments for sales of Products in specific export transactions. A Member may withdraw from coverage under this Certificate at any time by giving a written notice to CAEA, a copy of which CAEA shall promptly transmit to the Secretary of Commerce and the Attorney General.

5. CAEA and its Members will comply with requests made by the Secretary of Commerce, on behalf of the Secretary or the Attorney General, for information or documents relevant to conduct analysis under the Certificate. The Secretary of Commerce will request such information or documents when either the Attorney General or the Secretary believes that the information or documents are required to determine that the Export Trade or Export Trade Activities and Methods of Operation of a person protected by this Certificate of Review continue to comply with the standards of Section 303(a) of the Act.

The Department of Defense has submitted to OMB for clearance, the following proposal for collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35).

Title and OMB Number: Survey of Home School Associations; OMB Number 0704-(To Be Determined).

Type of Request: New Collection.

Number of Respondents: 200.

Responses Per Respondent: 1.

Annual Responses: 200.

Average Burden Per Response: 15 minutes.

Annual Burden Hours: 50.

Needs and Uses: The Conference

Report of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1999, Section 571, created a 5-year pilot program requiring the Military to give home school graduates the same priority as graduates from traditional high schools for military enlistment purposes. The Act included a requirement that the government evaluate the program's effectiveness. The Survey of Home School Associations will support this requirement. The respondents for this information collection will be presidents of home school associations nationwide. The survey will gather information on how military recruiters can effectively reach out to home schoolers. This information will be used by recruiters when targeting their efforts to the home schooling recruiting market. The survey will also gather information on how military recruiters can identify genuine home school graduates. Recruiting commands will use this information to shape their guidelines for evaluating home school graduation credentials. Individual responses to the survey will be kept confidential.

Individual responses to the survey will be kept confidential. Only group statistics will be reported. All information will be used for program evaluation and management only.

Affected Public: Not-for-profit institutions.

Frequency: One-time.

Respondent's Obligation: Voluntary.

OMB Desk Officer: Mr. Edward C.

Springer.

Written comments and recommendations on the proposed information collection should be sent to Mr. Springer at the Office of Management and Budget, Desk Officer for DoD, Room 10236, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503.

DoD Clearance Officer: Mr. Robert Cushing.

Written requests for copies of the information collection proposal should be sent to Mr. Cushing, WHS/DIOR, 1215 Jefferson Davis Highway, Suite 1204, Arlington, VA 22202-4302.

Dated: October 8, 1999.
