Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Tariff Filing

October 13, 1999.

Take notice that on October 6, 1999, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation tendered for filing, on a pro forma basis, certain revised tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, which tariff sheets are enumerated in Appendix A attached to the filing. Although Transco proposes that the revised tariff sheets be made effective upon the in-service date of Transco's new service delivery computer system, Transco requests that the Commission act on the filing no later than November 15, 1999.

Transco states that it is submitting the filing pursuant to Section 4 of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) to propose revisions to Section 42.3 of the General Terms and Conditions of Transco's tariff, and Section 2.8 of Rate Schedule FT, Section 2.4 of Rate Schedule FT-R, Section 2.5 of Rate Schedule FTN and Section 2.4 of Rate Schedule FTN-R. Specifically, Transco proposes to revise Section 42.3 of the General Terms and Conditions to provide that where a shipper elects to release a segment of its firm capacity entitlement in a zone and to retain a segment of its firm capacity entitlement in that zone, the sum of the scheduled quantities within that zone by that Releasing Shipper and any Replacement Shipper from or to firm secondary receipt and delivery points within any segment of that zone shall be limited to the level of the original firm capacity entitlement in that zone from which the Releasing Shipper's and the Replacement Shipper's firm capacity entitlement was derived. Conforming changes have been made to Section 2.8 of Rate Schedule FT, Section 2.4 of Rate Schedule FT-R, Section 2.5 of Rate Schedule FTN and Section 2.4 of Rate Schedule FTN-R, which address access to secondary receipt and delivery points within a zone, in order to recognize the limitation associated with released firm capacity entitlements.

Transco states that the tariff modifications are necessary in order to eliminate a practice by which certain shippers take advantage of the current flexibility under Transco's tariff for the purpose of creating firm contract rights in a zone that exceed the firm contract entitlements of those shippers through segments of capacity on the Transco pipeline system. That practice is accomplished through the use of segmentation rights granted under Transco's capacity release program and the flexible secondary receipt and delivery point rights granted under Transco's Rate Schedules FT and FT-R. The result is that shippers employing that practice obtain more than the rights to capacity in a segment of a zone that they are entitled to through payment of a reservation rate for that zone, a result that the Commission recently has affirmed exceeds Commission requirements and policy. Transco submits that the effect of this practice is to diminish in the value that firm capacity holders can receive for released capacity on the Transco system.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
