Continuation of Antidumping Findings on Sugar from Belgium, France and Germany and Countervailing Duty Order on Sugar from the European Community

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce

ACTION: Notice of Continuation of antidumping findings on sugar from Belgium, France and Germany and countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Community

SUMMARY: On February 2, 1999, the Department of Commerce ("the Department"), pursuant to sections 751(c) and 752 of the Tariff Act from 1930, as amended ("the Act"), determined that revocation of the antidumping findings on sugar from Belgium, France and Germany would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping (64 FR 5638 (February 2, 1999)). On September 19, 1999, the Department determined that revocation of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Community would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of a countervailable subsidy (64 FR 49464 (September 19, 1999)). On October 6, 1999, the International Trade Commission ("the Commission"), pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, determined that revocation of the antidumping findings on sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany and revocation of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Community would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (64 FR 54335 (October 6, 1999)).

Therefore, pursuant to 19 CFR 351.218(e)(4), the Department is publishing notice of the continuation of the antidumping findings on sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany, and continuation of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Union.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Scott E. Smith or Melissa G. Skinner, Office of Policy for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20230; telephone: (202) 482-6397 or (202) 482-1560, respectively.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 28, 1999.

Background

On October 1, 1998, the Department initiated, and the Commission instituted, a sunset review (63 FR 52683 and 63 FR 52759, respectively) of the antidumping duty findings on sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany, and of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Union pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act. As a result of these reviews, the Department found that revocation of the antidumping findings would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and notified the Commission of the magnitude of the margin likely to prevail were the findings to be revoked (see Final Results of Expedited Sunset Reviews: Sugar from France, Belgium and Germany, 64 FR 5638 (February 4, 1999)). Further, the Department found that revocation of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Community would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of a countervailable subsidy and notified the Commission of the net countervailable subsidy likely to prevail were the order to be revoked and the nature of the subsidy (see Final Results of Full Sunset Review: Sugar from the European Community, 64 FR 49464 (September 13, 1999)).

On October 6, 1999, the Commission determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the antidumping findings on sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany, and revocation of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Union would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (see Sugar From the European Union; Sugar From Belgium, France, and Germany; and Sugar and Syrups From Canada, 64 FR 54355 (October 6, 1999), and USITC Pub. 3238, Inv. Nos. 104-TAA-7, AA1921-198-200, and 731-TA-3 (September 1999)).

Scope

The merchandise subject to these antidumping findings from France, Belgium, and Germany is sugar, both raw and refined, with the exception of specialty sugars (e.g., cones, hats, pearls, loaves). The order on sugar from France excludes homeopathic sugar pellets meeting the following criteria: (1) Composed of 85 percent sucrose and 15 percent lactose; (2) having a polished, matte appearance, and more uniformly porous than domestic sugar cubes; (3) produced in two sizes of 2 mm and 3.8 mm in diameter.¹

The merchandise under review is currently classifiable under the following Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTSUS") subheadings: 1701.1100, 1701.1101, 1701.1102, 1701.1103, 1701.1105, 1701.1110, 1701.1120, 1701.1150, 1701.1200, 1701.1201, 1701.1202, 1701.1205, 1701.1210, 1701.1250, 1701.9105, 1701.9110, 1701.9120, 1701.9121, 1701.9122, 1701.9130, 1701.9900, 1701.9901, 1701.9902, 1701.9905, 1701.9910, 1701.9950, 1702.9005, 1702.9010, 1702.9020, 1702.9030, 1702.9031, 1702.9032, 2106.9011, 2106.9012, 2106.9042, 2106.9044, and 2106.9046. The HTSUS item numbers are provided for convenience and customs purposes only. They are not determinative of the products subject to the orders. The written description remains dispositive.

The merchandise subject to the countervailing duty order from the European Community is sugar, with the exception of specialty sugars (e.g., cones, hats, pearls, loaves), from the European Community. Blends of sugar and dextrose, a corn-derived sweetener, containing at least 65 percent sugar are within the scope of this order. The merchandise subject to this order is currently classifiable under item numbers 1701.11.00, 1701.12.00,

1701.91.20, and 1701.99.00 of the HTSUS (see Sugar from the European Community; Final Results of Countervailing Duty Administrative Review, 55 FR 35703 (August 31, 1990)). Determination

As a result of the determinations by the Department and the Commission that revocation of these antidumping findings and this countervailing duty order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, the Department hereby orders the continuation of the antidumping findings on sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany, and of the countervailing duty order on sugar from the European Community. The Department will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to continue to collect antidumping and countervailing duty deposits at the rates in effect at the time of entry for all imports of subject merchandise. The effective date of continuation of these antidumping findings and countervailing duty order will be the date of publication in the Federal Register of this Notice of Continuation. Pursuant to sections 751(c)(2) and 751(c)(6) the Department intends to initiate the next five-year reviews of these findings and order not later than September 2004.

Dated: October 22, 1999.
