

parties otherwise stipulate and the Settlement Judge approves.

(2) The Settlement Judge shall file or cause to be filed in the official case record any decision approving full settlement of the case. Where a full settlement is not achieved, the Settlement Judge shall notify the Chief Judge in writing of the termination of proceedings under this section, have the notification filed in the official case record, and include with the notification, for filing in the official case record, any decision approving partial settlement or stipulation of law or fact resulting from settlement negotiations.

(3) With the exception of a decision approving the terms of any full or partial settlement agreed to between the parties as set forth in paragraph (j) of this section, notification of the termination of settlement proceedings, or stipulations of law or fact agreed to by the parties, the Settlement Judge shall not file or cause to be filed in the official case record any material in his possession relating to these proceedings, including but not limited to communications with the Chief Judge, unless the parties otherwise stipulate and the Settlement Judge approves.

(j) Settlement. Pursuant to the Mine Act, any full or partial settlement of a case that is the subject of a settlement proceeding shall be submitted to the Settlement Judge for written approval.

(k) Termination of settlement proceeding. (1) The settlement proceedings shall terminate upon the issuance of a decision approving a full settlement or written notification to the Chief Judge by the Settlement Judge that no full settlement has been reached.

(2) Upon notification to the Chief Judge by the Settlement Judge that negotiations have concluded without a full settlement, the Chief Judge shall promptly assign the case to a Judge other than the Settlement Judge for appropriate proceedings under the Commission's procedural rules.

(l) Non-reviewability. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 2700.76 governing interlocutory review, any decision concerning the submission of a case to settlement procedures, any decision concerning the assignment of a Settlement Judge or a particular Judge, any decision to request or grant an enlargement of time under paragraph (e) of this section, and any decision by the Settlement Judge to terminate proceedings under this section is not subject to review by, appeal to, or rehearing by any Judge, the Chief Judge, or the Commission.

(m) Ex-parte communications. The provisions of § 2700.82 shall not apply to settlement proceedings under this section.

Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans: Approval of Revisions to the North Carolina State Implementation Plan

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The EPA proposes to approve the State Implementation Plan (SIP) revisions submitted by the State of North Carolina on July 29, 1998. These revisions clarify rules for the control of particulate emissions, change the Division's name and address, revise exclusionary levels, add requirements for expedited permit processing, make clarifications, and correct deficiencies identified by EPA. In the Rules section of this Federal Register, the EPA is approving the State's SIP revision as a direct final rule without prior proposal because the Agency views this as a noncontroversial submittal and anticipates no adverse comments. A detailed rationale for the approval is set forth in the direct final rule. If no adverse comments are received in response to this action, no further activity is contemplated. If EPA receives adverse comments, the direct final rule will be withdrawn and all public comments received will be addressed in a subsequent final rule based on this proposed rule. The EPA will not institute a second comment period on this document. Any parties interested in commenting on this document should do so at this time.

DATES: Written comments must be received on or before December 10, 1999.

ADDRESSES: All comments should be addressed to: Gregory Crawford at the EPA, Region 4 Air Planning Branch, 61 Forsyth Street, SW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. Copies of documents relative to this action are available at the following addresses for inspection during normal business hours:
