CNG states that the purpose of this filing is to implement a new rate schedule and associated form of service agreement, Rate Schedule TTT, authorizing CNG to provide title transfer tracking services. TTT service is an administrative service, under which CNG provides buyers and sellers of gas with accounting locations (Eligible Points) for the nomination of title transfers on the CNG system. As with CNG's existing Mainline Pooling Service (Rate Schedule MPS), the Eligible Points for proposed TTT Service will correspond to one location for receipts upstream (or south) of CNG's Valley Gate Junction, and one relating to quantities downstream (or north) of Valley Gate.

CNG states that copies of its letter of transmittal and enclosures are being mailed to CNG's customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. #### Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Filing of Refund Report

November 24, 1999.

Take notice that on November 19, 1999, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia Gas) filed a refund report in the above referenced docket, pursuant to section 154.501(e) of the Commission's regulations.

Columbia Gas states that on October 19, 1999, Columbia Gas made refunds as a result of and pursuant to its approved Stipulation and Agreement settling the referenced docket, which settlement was approved by the Commission on September 15, 1999. Pursuant to section 154.501 of the Commission's regulations, the refunds include applicable interest through October 19, 1999. Parties who received refunds also received a schedule of the computation of the principal and interest amounts.

Columbia Gas states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all affected customers and state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before December 1, 1999. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

[Docket No. EC00-26-000]

Commonwealth Edison Company, on Behalf of Itself and Its Public Utility Affiliates and PECO Energy Company, on Behalf of Itself and Its Public Utility Affiliates; Notice of Filing

November 24, 1999.

Take notice that on November 22, 1999 Commonwealth Edison Company (ComEd) and PECO Energy Company (PECO), on their behalf and on behalf of their public utility affiliates (collectively, Applicants), tendered for filing an application pursuant to Section 203 of the Federal Power Act and Part 33 of the Commission's regulations, 18 CFR Part 33 (1999), for an order approving the proposed merger of ComEd and PECO (Application).

Applicants request all authorizations necessary to undertake the proposed merger. Upon consummation of the merger, Applicants will form a registered public utility holding company system.

Applicants request that the Commission approve the merger on an expedited basis and without an evidentiary hearing. Applicants state that they have, by overnight mail, served a copy of the Application, including all non-confidential attached materials, on the Illinois Commerce Commission, on the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and on all other interested entities.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest such filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions and protests should be filed on or before January 21, 2000. Protests will be considered by the Commission to determine the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
