

The "no-action" alternative is a continuation of the present management course regarding the management of visitor use. Three action alternatives would create zones within the park to protect resources and provide opportunities for a range of visitor experiences. All three action alternatives limit park visitation in some backcountry areas, and all of the action alternatives call for making adjustments to the park boundary. The National Park Service's proposed action would emphasize proactive management to address impacts caused by increased visitor use. Under this alternative, overall park visitation would continue to increase, but it would be limited in certain areas. Some new visitor facilities would be built in frontcountry areas. Alternative A would provide greater opportunities for increased use of Zion. Trails would be upgraded, new routes designated, and additional picnic areas, interpretive facilities, and backcountry campsites would be provided. Alternative B emphasizes the additional protection of park resources while still providing opportunities for a range of visitor experiences. Under alternative B, the number and frequency of shuttles going from Zion Canyon Lodge to the Temple of Sinawava would be reduced, and the lodge would be converted to a research/environmental education center.

A wild and scenic river suitability/eligibility study is included in the DEIS/GMP for all of the drainages in the park and several drainages on adjacent lands managed by the Bureau of Land Management. The three action alternatives recommend the inclusion of five drainages and their tributaries in the national wild and scenic rivers system.

The DEIS/GMP evaluates the environmental consequences of the proposed action and the other alternatives on natural resources (e.g., the North Fork of the Virgin River floodplain, Virgin spinedace, Mexican spotted owl, desert bighorn sheep) visitor use and experiences (e.g., the range of visitor experiences, natural sounds), and the socioeconomic environment.
