

establishment of long-term institutional and individual linkages.

4. Cost-effectiveness/Cost-sharing: The overhead and administrative components of the proposal, including salaries should be kept as low as possible. All other items should be necessary and appropriate. Proposals should maximize cost-sharing through other private sector support as well as institutional direct funding contributions.

5. Placement experience: Proposals should demonstrate the organization's ability and experience with graduate level, fast-track placements at U.S. universities.

6. Professional and Academic Contacts: Proposals should demonstrate substantive staff knowledge of the relevant academic fields and professions to ensure productive engagement with professional and academic contacts in every phase of program planning and implementation, including the arrangement of internships and selection panels.

7. Support of Diversity: Proposals should demonstrate the organization's commitment to promoting the awareness and understanding of diversity and should include a strategy for achieving diverse group of Fellows and host institutions.

8. Project Evaluation: Proposals should include a plan to evaluate the project's success, both during and after the program. A draft survey questionnaire or other technique and a description of methodologies that can be used to link the outcomes to original project objectives should also be included. Grantee organization will be expected to submit quarterly program and financial reports.

9. Alumni Tracking and Follow-on Activities: Proposals should provide a plan for effective tracking of current and future Alumni and demonstrate the organization's willingness to provide data to and coordinate tracking with the Bureau, Public Affairs Sections and/or Fulbright commissions. Proposals may also include a plan for continued follow-on activity (without Bureau support) which insures that Bureau-supported programs are not isolated events.

Notice

The terms and conditions published in this RFP are binding and may not be modified by any ECA representative. Explanatory information provided by the Bureau that contradicts published language will not be binding. Issuance of the RFP does not constitute an award commitment on the part of the Government. The Bureau reserves the right to reduce, revise, or increase proposed budgets in accordance with the needs of the program and the availability of funds.

Awards made will be subject to quarterly reporting and evaluation requirements.

Final awards cannot be made until funds have been appropriated by Congress, allocated and committed through internal State Department procedures.

Notification

All applicants will be notified of the results of the review process on or about March 31, 2000.
