Proposed Project: Survey of Organized Consumer Self-Help Entities—New

The self-help movement in the United States has mushroomed, and increasingly serves mental health consumers and family members as a complement to, or substitution for, traditional mental health services. The purposes of this project of SAMHSA's Center for Mental Health Services are to estimate the number of self-help entities nationwide and to describe their characteristics—structure, types of activities engaged in, approaches to well-being and recovery, resources, and linkages to other entities in the community, such as the mental health service delivery system. The survey will gather information from a sample of 3,000 mental health self-help entities run by and for recipients of mental health services and/or their family members. Data will be collected from three types of self-help entities: mutual support groups; self-help organizations; and, consumer-operated businesses and services. Computer Assisted Telephone Interviewing (CATI) will be used to conduct interviews with in-scope entities. The total response burden estimate is shown below.

| Instrument | Number of respondents | Responses/respondent | Average burden/response (Hrs) | Total burden (Hrs) |
|---------------------|-----------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------|--------------------|
| Screener | 7,600 | 1 | .17 | 1,292 |
| Questionnaire | 3,000 | 1 | .42 | 1,260 |
| Total | | | | 2,552 |
