

serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties, or issued by the Commission and will not have the right to seek rehearing or appeal the Commission's final order to a federal court.

The Commission will consider all comments and concerns equally, whether filed by commenters or those requesting intervenor status.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the NGA and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Petal to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Linwood A. Watson, Jr.,

Acting Secretary.

PG&E Gas Transmission, Northwest Corporation; Notice of Proposed Change in FERC Gas Tariff

January 6, 2000.

Take notice that on December 30, 1999, PG&E Gas Transmission, Northwest Corporation (PG&E GT-NW) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1-A, Fifth Revised Sheet No. 7 and Second Revised Sheet No. 7A. PG&E GT-NW requests that the above-referenced tariff become effective January 1, 2000.

PG&E GT-NW states that these sheets are being filed to reflect the implementation of a negotiated rate agreement.

PG&E GT-NW further states that a copy of this filing has been served on PG&E GT-NW's jurisdictional customers, and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Portland General Electric Company; Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon; Notice Canceling Deadline for Additional Study Requests

January 6, 2000.

On December 16, 1999, Portland General Electric Company (PGE) filed a new major license application for the portions of the Pelton Round Butte Project No. 2030 for which it is the licensee. On December 17, 1999, the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon (Tribes) filed a new major license application for the entire project, docketed as Project No. 11832-000.

On December 23, 1999, PGE and the Tribes filed a joint request to extend deadlines for post-filing actions, in light of a global settlement the competing applicants have reached and will subsequently file with the Commission. On December 28, 1999, the Commission's staff, who had not yet received the December 28 filing, issued a NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS TENDERED FOR FILING WITH THE COMMISSION AND SOLICITING

ADDITIONAL STUDY REQUESTS. The notice established February 15, 2000, as the deadline for additional study requests.

The February 15, 2000, deadline for filing additional study requests is canceled. Action on PGE's and the Tribe's joint request will be taken in a future order.
