INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigations Nos. 731-TA-861 & 862 (Preliminary)]

Certain Expandable Polystyrene Resins From Indonesia and Korea

Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission determines,² pursuant to section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)) (the Act), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports from Indonesia and Korea of certain expandable polystyrene resins (EPS resins),³ provided for in subheading 3903.11.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).

Commencement of Final Phase Investigations

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission's rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in section 207.21 of the Commission's rules upon notice from the Department of Commerce (Commerce) of affirmative preliminary determinations in the investigations under section 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in those investigations under section 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² Commissioner Thelma J. Askey dissenting; Commissioner Deanna Tanner Okun not participating.

³ For purposes of these investigations, Commerce has defined "certain expandable polystyrene resins" as the raw material manufactured in the form of polystyrene beads, whether of regular (shape) type or modified (block) type, regardless of specification, having a weighted-average molecular weight of between 160,000 and 260,000, containing from 3 to 7 percent blowing agents, and having bead sizes ranging from 0.4 mm to 3 mm. Specifically excluded from this definition is off-grade, off-specification expandable polystyrene resin.

Background

On November 22, 1999, a petition was filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by BASF Corporation, Mount Olive, NJ; Huntsman Expandable Polymers Company LC, Salt Lake City, UT; Nova Chemicals, Inc., Moon Township, PA; and StyroChem U.S., Ltd., Radnor, PA, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of LTFV imports of EPS resins from Indonesia and Korea. Accordingly, effective November 22, 1999, the Commission instituted antidumping duty investigations Nos. 731-TA-861 & 862 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of December 3, 1999 (64 FR 67934). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on December 13, 1999, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on January 6, 2000. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3266 (January 2000), entitled Certain Expandable Polystyrene Resins from Indonesia and Korea: Investigations Nos. 731-TA-861 & 862 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: January 7, 2000.

Donna R. Koehnke,

Secretary.
