

addition, the plan must maintain for six years such records as are necessary to enable the Department, Internal Revenue Service (IRS), plan participants, beneficiaries, participating employers, and others to determine whether the conditions of the exemptions have been met. Part C permits plans to lease office space and provide administrative services or sell goods to a participating employer or union or to another plan. Under Part C, the plan must maintain for six years following the date of termination of the lease or of the provision of services such records as are necessary to enable persons from the Department, IRS, and other related parties to determine whether the conditions of the exemption have been met.

Information collection under Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption 77-10 requires that a multiple employer plan which shares office space, administrative services, or goods or which provides administrative services or goods (as under Part C of Prohibited Transaction Exemption 76-1), maintain, during the time of the transactions and six years from the time of termination, such records as are necessary to enable the Department, IRS, and other related parties to determine whether the conditions of the exemption have been met. The recordkeeping requirements are intended to protect the interests of plan participants and beneficiaries and are essentially the same recordkeeping requirements as under Part C of Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption 76-1.
