12 CFR Chapter IX

[No. 2000-02]

RIN 3069-AA87

Reorganization of Federal Housing Finance Board Regulations

AGENCY: Federal Housing Finance Board.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Federal Housing Finance Board (Finance Board) is reorganizing and renumbering its regulations, deleting obsolete regulations and amending the renumbered regulations to achieve greater consistency in terminology and greater conformity with current stylistic conventions of the Code of Federal Regulations. The rule will implement a more logical and efficient presentation of the regulations governing the Federal Home Loan Banks (Banks) and the Federal Home Loan Bank System (Bank System), in anticipation of the incorporation of new and amended regulations to implement the Federal Home Loan Bank Modernization Act of 1999.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This final rule is effective on February 18, 2000.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Comparison of Proposed and Final Rules

On September 27, 1999, the Finance Board published a proposed rule to reorganize and renumber the agency's existing regulations, delete obsolete regulations and make certain technical amendments to the renumbered regulations. See 64 FR 52148 (Sept. 27, 1999). The amendments set forth in the proposed rule were intended to implement a more logical and efficient presentation of the rules governing the Banks and Bank System, as well as to achieve greater consistency in terminology and greater conformity with current stylistic conventions of the Code of Federal Regulations. The proposed rule was published with a 90-day comment period that ended on December 27, 1999. The Finance Board received no comment letters.

Simultaneously with the proposed reorganization rule, the Finance Board published its proposed Financial Management and Mission Achievement (FMMA) rule, under which extensive substantive additions and amendments to the Finance Board's regulations were proposed. See 64 FR 52163 (Sept. 27, 1999). The proposed reorganization rule, although itself making primarily only technical and organizational changes to the existing regulations, was developed with the assumption that it would be finalized concurrently with the FMMA rule. As such, it was expected that, when the reorganization rule was finalized: (1) The finalized FMMA provisions would be contained within the new organizational framework; and (2) outmoded existing regulations would be either deleted, or updated through amendments contained in FMMA to fit logically within the new framework.

However, on November 17, 1999, in response to the recent enactment of the Federal Home Loan Bank System Modernization Act of 1999¹ (Modernization Act), Public Law 106-102, Title VI (1999), the Finance Board withdrew the proposed FMMA rule. See 64 FR 66115 (Nov. 24, 1999). Although the Finance Board expects in the coming year to promulgate separately modified versions of many of the regulations proposed in the FMMA rule, these new regulations and substantive amendments to existing regulations are not being finalized concurrently with this final reorganization rule as was originally anticipated. As a result, in this final rule, it is necessary for the Finance Board to carry over certain existing regulations that would have been superceded by FMMA—most notably on investments and deposits—until the agency promulgates new regulations to govern these Bank activities. Although these largely outmoded regulations do not fit perfectly within the regulatory structure contemplated by the reorganization, they have been placed in the most logical parts of 12 CFR chapter IX pending their anticipated deletion later in 2000. For areas in which the FMMA rule would have created new regulations, and in which the Finance Board still intends to promulgate new regulations (e.g., capital requirements and regulations governing member mortgage assets), appropriate part numbers have been reserved in order to make clear where these regulations will fit into the organizational structure of chapter IX as they are adopted.

Since the publication of the proposed reorganization rule, the Finance Board has promulgated two final rules, see 64 FR 55125 (Oct. 12, 1999) (allocation of joint and several liability on consolidated obligations among the Banks); 64 FR 61016 (Nov. 9, 1999) (availability of unpublished information), and one interim final rule, see 64 FR 71275 (Dec. 21, 1999) (devolution of corporate governance authorities as required by the Modernization Act) that affected text in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The final reorganization rule accounts for these CFR text changes and places new material logically within the organizational structure.

Finally, although the overall structure of the regulations under the final rule will be identical to that which was proposed, certain part numbers appear differently in the final rule. In renumbering the parts, the Finance Board has attempted to group together topics within each subchapter and to leave unused part numbers at the end of each topic sequence so that any future regulations (including those that are not now foreseen) may be placed logically within the appropriate subchapter of chapter IX without the necessity of further renumbering of existing parts.

So that new regulations implementing various statutory changes made by the Modernization Act may be promulgated quickly and efficiently within the new structure, the final reorganization rule is effective immediately upon publication in the Federal Register.

II. Analysis of the Final Rule

This final rule deletes the existing subchapter headings for the Finance Board's regulations and establishes an entirely new set of subchapter headings. Within this structure, existing parts and sections have been re-ordered into logical subject-matter groupings under the subchapter headings. Generally, existing parts remain intact and have simply been given a new part number, with each section and paragraph retaining the same designation (e.g., § 935.9(a) is now § 950.9(a); § 933.11(b)(3)(i)(A) is now § 925.11(b)(3)(i)(A), etc.). In some cases, however, longer sections covering more complex subject matter have been redesignated as parts in order to allow the material to be presented more clearly without the need for excessive sub-paragraph designations (e.g. the material that previously appeared in §§ 932.16 and .17 is now set forth as part 918).

New part 900 has been created to contain definitions of terms that are used throughout the regulations (i.e., Act, Bank, Board of Directors, consolidated obligations, Finance Board and member). In conjunction with this, the definitions of these terms and synonymous terms have been removed from the definitional sections of the individual parts. It is anticipated that more terms may eventually be consolidated into part 900 as regulations are added, or as existing regulations undergo substantive revision in the future. Other terms requiring definition that are not used throughout the regulations would continue to be defined in the definitional provisions of the parts in which they are used.

The following derivation table shows the origin of the material that is contained in each of the proposed newly designated parts (or sections, as appropriate). "Future rulemaking" is shown where a part or section has been reserved in anticipation of a future rulemaking.

Although the amendments made by the rule are otherwise entirely technical and organizational, the final rule deletes several regulatory provisions that either are now entirely obsolete, or involve the Finance Board in Bank governance and are therefore inappropriate since the enactment of the Modernization Act. While not literally obsolete, the regulations falling into the latter category have been essentially obsolete as a practical matter for several years or more. The following chart enumerates the sections that have been deleted:

Deleted	Subject matter	Reason for deletion
Part 931	Definitions	Part 900 now contains general definitions.
§ 934.3 (2nd sentence)	Transfer of funds between Banks	Discretion devolved to Banks.
§ 934.8	Surety bonds	Discretion devolved to Banks.
§ 934.9	Insurance	Discretion devolved to Banks.
§ 934.10	Safekeeping of accounts	Obsolete.
§ 934.11	Securities held in trust or as collateral	Discretion devolved to Banks.
§ 934.12	Accounting	Discretion devolved to Banks.
§ 934.14	OTS assessments	Unnecessary.

With the renumbering of the Finance Board's regulations, reflected in the charts above, all cross-references to old part or section numbers within the Finance Board's regulations must also be changed. As such, much of the amendatory instruction set forth below addresses the revision of the hundreds of cross-references in the regulations to reflect accurately the new part and section numbers.

In order to conform to the current stylistic conventions used in the Code of Federal Regulations, the rule also removes all paragraph designations from alphabetical definition sections of the individual parts, where feasible.

All remaining changes merely correct typographical errors that came to the attention of the Finance Board during its review of the regulations.

III. Regulatory Flexibility Act

This is a technical rule that reorganizes the Finance Board's regulations without substantive change. The rule will not impose any regulatory requirements on small entities. Thus, in accordance with the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601 et seq., the Finance Board hereby certifies that this final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. 5 U.S.C. 605(b).

IV. Paperwork Reduction Act

The final rule does not contain any collections of information pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. See 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq. Consequently, the Finance Board has not submitted any information to the Office of Management and Budget for review.

- 918.2 Annual compensation.
- 918.3 Compensation policy requirements.
- 918.4 Expenses.
- 918.5 Approval by Finance Board.
- 918.6 Disclosure.
- 918.7 Maintenance of effort.
- 918.8 Site of board of directors and committee meetings.

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 1422b(a), 1427.

§ 918.1 Definitions.

As used in this part:

Compensation means any payment of money or provision of any other thing of value (or the accrual of a right to receive money or a thing of value in a subsequent year) in consideration of a director's performance of official duties for the Bank, including, without limitation, daily meeting fees, incentive payments and fringe benefits.

§ 918.2 Annual compensation.

Beginning in 2000 and annually thereafter, each Bank's board of directors shall adopt by resolution a written policy to provide for the payment to Bank directors of reasonable compensation for the performance of their duties as members of the Bank's board of directors, subject to the requirements set forth in § 918.3. At a minimum, such policy shall address the activities or functions for which attendance is necessary and appropriate and may be compensated, and shall explain and justify the methodology for determining the amount of compensation to be paid to directors.

§ 918.3 Compensation policy requirements.

Payment to directors under each Bank's policy on director compensation may be based upon factors that the Bank determines to be appropriate, but each Bank's policy shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) Statutory limits on annual compensation. Pursuant to section 7(i) of the Act, as amended, 12 U.S.C. 1427(i), for 2000, the following limits on compensation shall apply: for a Chairperson—$25,000; for a Vice Chairperson—$20,000; for any other member of the Bank's board of directors—$15,000. Beginning in 2001 and for subsequent years, these limits on annual compensation shall be adjusted annually by the Finance Board to reflect any percentage increase in the preceding year's Consumer Price Index (CPI) for all urban consumers, as published by the Department of Labor. Each year, as soon as practicable after the publication of the previous year's CPI, the Finance Board shall publish notice by Federal Register, distribution of a memorandum, or otherwise, of the CPI-adjusted limits on annual compensation.

(b) Compensation permitted only for performance of official Bank business. The total compensation received by each director in a year shall reflect the amount of time spent on official Bank business, such that greater or lesser attendance at board and committee meetings during a given year will be reflected in the compensation received by the director for that year. A Bank shall not pay fees to a director, such as retainer fees, that do not reflect the director's performance of official Bank business.

§ 918.4 Expenses.

Each Bank may pay its directors for such necessary and reasonable travel, subsistence and other related expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their official duties as are payable to senior officers of the Bank under the Bank's travel policy, except that directors may not be paid for gift or entertainment expenses.

§ 918.5 Approval by Finance Board.

Payments made to directors in compliance with the limits on annual directors' compensation and the standards set forth in this section are deemed to be approved by the Finance Board for purposes of section 7(i) of the Act, as amended.

§ 918.6 Disclosure.

Each Bank shall, in its annual report:

(a) State the sum of the total actual compensation paid to its directors in that year;

(b) State the sum of the total actual expenses paid to its directors in that year; and

(c) Summarize its policy on director compensation.

§ 918.7 Maintenance of effort.

(a) General. Notwithstanding the limits on annual directors' compensation established by section 7(i) of the Act, as amended, the board of directors of each Bank shall continue to maintain its level of oversight of the management of the Bank, and, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the board of directors shall hold no fewer in-person meetings in any year than it has held on average over the immediately preceding three years.

(b) Waiver of meeting requirement. A Bank may apply to the Finance Board for approval, upon a showing of good cause, to hold in any year fewer than the number of in-person board of directors meetings required under paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 918.8 Site of board of directors and committee meetings.

Meetings of a Bank's board of directors and committees thereof usually should be held within the district served by the Bank. No meetings of a Bank's board of directors and committees thereof may be held in any location that is not within the United States, including its possessions and territories.

Federal Aviation Administration

14 CFR Part 71

[Airspace Docket No. 99-AGL-56]

Modification of Class D Airspace; Grand Forks AFB, ND

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This action modifies Class D airspace at Grand Forks AFB, ND. This action amends the effective hours of the Class D surface area to coincide with the airport traffic control tower (ATCT) hours of operation for Grand Forks AFB. The purpose of this action is to clarify when two-way radio communication with the ATCT is required.

EFFECTIVE DATE: 0901 UTC, April 20, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Denis C. Burke, Air Traffic Division, Airspace Branch, AGL-520, Federal Aviation Administration, 2300 East Devon Avenue, Des Plaines, Illinois 60018, telephone (847) 294-7568.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

History

On Friday, December 3, 1999, the FAA proposed to amend 14 CFR part 71 to modify Class D airspace at Grand Forks AFB, ND (64 FR 67810). The proposal was to amend the effective hours to coincide with the ATCT hours of operation for Grand Forks AFB. Controlled airspace extending upward from the surface is needed to contain Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) operations during portions of the terminal operation and while transiting between the enroute and terminal environments. Interested parties were invited to participate in this rulemaking proceeding by submitting written comments on the proposal to the FAA. No comments objecting to the proposal were received. Class D airspace designations are published in paragraph 5000 of FAA Order 7400.9G dated September 1, 1999, and effective September 16, 1999, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1. The Class D airspace designation listed in this document will be published subsequently in the Order.

The Rule

This amendment to 14 CFR part 71 modifies Class D airspace at Grand Forks AFB, ND, by amending the effective hours to coincide with the ATCT hours of operation for Grand Forks AFB. The area will be depicted on appropriate aeronautical charts.

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. Therefore, this regulation—(1) Is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a Regulatory Evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Adoption of the Amendment
