Individual respondents may request that we withhold their home address from the record, which we will honor to the extent allowable by law. There also may be circumstances in which we would withhold from the record a respondent's identity, as allowable by law. If you wish us to withhold your name and/or address, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your comment. However, we will not consider anonymous comments. We will make all submissions from organizations or businesses, and from individuals identifying themselves as representatives or officials of organizations or businesses, available for public inspection in their entirety.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 191-2000]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a Modified System of Records.

SUMMARY: Under the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, proposes to modify two systems of records last published in the Federal Register on September 30, 1977 (42 FR 53351), and entitled, "Appraisers File (JUSTICE/LDN-001)," and "Title Abstractors, Attorneys and Insurance Corporations File (JUSTICE/LDN-004)."

Specifically, the Division will modify the system notice by consolidating the two notices into one and renaming it, "Appraisers, Approved Attorneys, Abstractors and Title Companies Files Database System (JUSTICE/ENRD-001)"; updating and clarifying information, and adding a routine use (information may be shared with other federal agencies). For public convenience, the revised system notice has been printed below in full, replacing the previous notice in its entirety.

Sections 552a(e) (4) and (11) of the Privacy Act require that the public be given 30 days to comment on new routine uses of information in the system. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibility under the Act, requires 40 days to review the proposed new routine uses and exemptions for the system. Therefore, the public, OMB, and the Congress are invited to submit written comments by April 3, 2000.

DATES: The proposed modifications to the System of Records will be effective April 3, 2000, unless comments are received that result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Submit written comments to the Department of Justice, ATTN: Mary E. Cahill, Management Analyst, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, National Place Building, Room 1400 North, 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530. If no comments are received, the proposal will be implemented without further notice in the Federal Register.

Dated: January 27, 2000.

Stephen R. Colgate,

Assistant Attorney General for Administration.
