Statement for Non-Rulemaking Public Comment Collection Regarding Disclosure of Commenter Names and Home Addresses
Our practice is to make comments, including names and home addresses of respondents, available for public review. Individual respondents may request that we withhold their home address from public disclosure, which we will honor to the extent allowable by law. There also may be circumstances in which we would withhold a respondent’s identity from public disclosure, as allowable by law. If you wish us to withhold your name and/or address, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your comment. We will make all submissions from organizations or businesses, and from individuals identifying themselves as representatives or officials of organizations or businesses, available for public disclosure in their entirety.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigations Nos. 731–TA–459 (Review)]

Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) Film From Korea

Determination

On the basis of the record developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on PET film from Korea would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted these reviews on July 1, 1999 (64 FR 35687, July 1, 1999) and determined on October 1, 1999 that it would conduct expedited reviews (64 FR 55959, October 15, 1999). The Commission transmitted its determination in these reviews to the Secretary of Commerce on February 17, 2000. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3279 (February 2000), entitled Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) Film from Korea: Investigation No. 731–TA–459 (Review).

By order of the Commission.
