

wilderness values. The 1991 San Rafael Resource Management Plan (RMP) further addressed ORV use in the region by allocating all lands in the affected WSAs in either the "limited use" restricted to designated routes, or the "closed" to ORV use categories. Following the RMP, the BLM Price Office initiated a planning effort to designate the routes in the San Rafael planning unit, including lands in the affected WSAs within the limited use ORV category. This planning effort included extensive coordination with local governments and interest groups, as well as the formation of a citizen's team to advise on ORV route designations. Despite these efforts, route designation has remained a contentious issue and a travel plan for the San Rafael Swell, including the affected WSAs, has not been completed. Throughout this period, ORV use in the San Rafael Swell has increased tremendously. The proliferation of vehicle ways beyond the ways inventoried at the time of WSA designation has become a serious problem. Damage to soils, vegetation and other resources is occurring in many areas degrading naturalness and other wilderness qualities. The impairment of wilderness values necessitates this emergency closure order in the seven WSAs located in the San Rafael Swell region. The closure effects motorized vehicle use on all public lands in WSAs in the Price Field Office with the exception of "four" routes in Sid's Mountain WSA described as follows: (1) The wash bottom of Coal Wash, including the short dugway from the west which enters this wash, and North Fork Coal Wash south until it exits the WSA over "Fix-It-Pass", (2) the wash bottom of South Fork Coal Wash from its junction with the North Fork to and including the "Eva Conover" way, (3) the "Devil's Racetrack" way, and (4) the Justensen Flat access way, including lower Eagle Canyon southeast from the junction of this way. These routes will remain open on a conditional basis. Motorized use of these routes will be allowed to continue contingent upon the success of a rehabilitation and monitoring plan designed to restore areas to non-impairment conditions and prevent further travel off of these pre-described routes. Should the plan not restore the area, these areas will also be closed until adverse effects can be eliminated. The net effect of this action combined with previous land use decisions, is that all WSA's administered by the Price Field Office are closed to ORV use except for the routes specified as conditionally open in this notice.

Nothing in this order alters in any way legal rights which Emery County or the State of Utah may claim to assert R.S. 2477 highways, and to challenge in Federal court or other appropriate venue, any BLM road closures that they believe are inconsistent with their claims.
