SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The energy information collection submitted to OMB for review was:

1. EIA-903, "Natural Gas Service Interruptions in the Northeast during January and February 2000."

2. The Energy Information Administration plans to collect information from 25 companies which deliver natural gas (i.e., have natural gas service arrangements) to consumers in the Northeast.

The form consists of six parts. Part I contains identification data; Part II, information on selected characteristics of interruptible service arrangements provided to end-use customers; Part III, names and contact information for customers with interruptible service agreements who were interrupted; Part IV, baseline monthly and weekly information for those categories of service which were interrupted during December 1999, and January and February 2000; Part V, names and contact information for customers with firm service agreements who were interrupted; and Part VI, names and contact information for customers that declined natural gas service when interruptions were ended and natural gas service was offered/available in the report State. This is a new survey and a new OMB number is being requested.

The response obligation will be mandatory.

3. The data are needed to respond to a request from the Secretary of Energy and Congress to jointly conduct a study on the impact of interruptible contracts on home heating oil supplies in the Northeast, during January and February 2000.

4. Respondents will be 25 natural gas companies who deliver natural gas to consumers.

5. The reporting burden is expected to be 500 hours. (25 respondents × 1 response × 20 hours).

Statutory Authority: Section 3507(j)(1) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (Pub. L. No. 104-13).

Issued in Washington, DC, April 17, 2000.

ANP Marketing Company; Notice of Issuance of Order

April 13, 2000.

ANP Marketing Company (ANP Marketing) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which ANP Marketing will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. ANP Marketing also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, ANP Marketing requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by ANP Marketing.

On April 10, 2000, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Corporate Applications, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by ANP Marketing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, ANP Marketing is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; Provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of ANP Marketing's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is May 10, 2000.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Internet at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

David P. Boergers,

Secretary.
