

submit quarterly to USAC data showing the number of lines it served in a study area as of the last business day of the previous quarter. (Price Cap LECs—Line Counts—No. of respondents: 18; hours per response 5 hours; total annual burden: 360 hours). (Competitive LECs—No. of respondents: 9; hours per response: 20 hours; total annual burden: 180 hours). In addition to line count information, price cap LECs must file with USAC on June 30, 2000, October 15, 2000, April 16, 2001 and annually after that, price cap revenue data, prices for unbundled network element (UNE) loops and line ports, and UNE zone boundary information. (Price Cap LECs—Price and Revenue Data—No. of respondents: 18; hours per response: 675 average; total annual burden: 12,162 first year, 6081 annually thereafter). c. Cost Support Information: The Report and Order requires price cap LECs who choose not to follow the voluntary portions of the CALLS Proposal to submit cost support information, which the Commission would use to set their access rate levels. (No. of respondents: 2; hours per response: 10; total annual burden: 20 hours). The Commission will use the modified tariff information filed by the price cap LECs to ensure compliance with the various interstate access reforms of the CALLS proposal. USAC will use the line count and other information filed by price cap and competitive LECs to determine, on a per-line basis, the amount that the carrier will receive from the interstate access universal service support mechanism. The Commission will use the cost support information filed by the price cap LECs to ensure that their interstate access rates are just and reasonable, as required by section 201(b) of the Communications Act. Obligation to respond: Required to obtain or retain benefits. Public reporting burden for the collection of information is as noted above. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the collections of information, including suggestions for reducing the burden to Performance Evaluation and Records Management, Washington, DC 20554.

Federal Communications Commission.
