Analysis of Proposes Consent Order To Aid Public Comments

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement to a proposed consent order from Riley Manufactured Homes, Inc., and its president, Dennis Ohnstad ("respondents").

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for thirty (30) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After thirty (30) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement and take other appropriate action or make final the agreement's proposed order.

The Commission's complaint alleges that respondents' credit advertisements violated section 144 of the Truth in Lending Act, ("TILA"), 15 U.S.C. 1664, and Section 226.24 of Regulation Z, 12 CFR 226.24. Congress established statutory disclosure requirements for credit advertising under the TILA and directed the Federal Reserve Board ("Board") to promulgate a regulation implementing such statute—Regulation Z. See 15 U.S.C. 1601-1667e; 12 CFR part 226.

According to the complaint, respondents' advertisements stated a rate of finance charge for financing the purchase of manufactured homes but did not properly disclose the rate as an annual percentage rate, as required by Regulation Z. The complaint also alleges that respondents' credit advertisements stated a monthly payment amount or other "triggering" terms (the amount or percentage of any downpayment; the number of payments or the period of repayment; the amount of any payment;
