SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 26, 2000, we published in the Federal Register (65 FR 34113-34125, Docket No. 98-030-1) a proposal to establish regulations providing for use of irradiation as a phytosanitary treatment for fruits and vegetables imported into the United States. The irradiation treatment would provide protection against fruit flies and the mango seed weevil. This proposal would provide an alternative to the currently approved treatments (various fumigation, cold, and heat treatments, and systems approaches employing techniques such as greenhouse growing) against fruit flies and the mango seed weevil in fruits and vegetables.

Comments on the proposed rule were required to be received on or before July 25, 2000. Several commenters have requested that we extend the comment period on Docket No. 98-030-1 to allow additional time for members of the public to review the proposed rule and to submit comments. While we believe that the original comment period allowed sufficient time for public review, there was a temporary malfunction in the E-Comments Web application (<http://comments.aphis.usda.gov>) established to receive electronically submitted comments on this proposed rule. This prevented the application from accepting comments over a period of approximately 10 days. To compensate for this disruption of service, we are reopening and extending the comment period on Docket No. 98-030-1 until August 21, 2000. This action will allow interested persons additional time to prepare and submit comments.

Done at Washington, DC, this 27th day of July 2000.

Bobby R. Acord,

Acting Administrator, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service.
