Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Time Domain Corporation

Notice is hereby given that, on July 5, 2000, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. (“the Act”), Time Domain Corporation has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of involving the Act’s provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are Time Domain Corporation, Huntsville, AL; and GE Corporation Research and Development, Niskayuna, NY.

The nature and objectives of the venture are to conduct research on an ultra-wideband RF technology that will enable precise tracking, data telemetry, and wireless Local Area Network (LAN) applications to run on the same infrastructure and operate within the existing Radio Frequency (RF) spectrum. The initial application is anticipated to be in a hospital environment. The activities of this joint venture project will be partially funded by an award from the Advanced Technology Program, National Institute of Standards and Technology, Department of Commerce.

BILLING CODE 4410-11-M

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

Workforce Investment Act; Indian and Native American Programs Under Section 166; Notice of Renewal of Native American Employment and Training Council

In accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the Secretary of Labor has determined that the renewal of the Native American Employment and Training Council is in the public interest consistent with the requirements of title I, section 166(h)(4) of the Workforce Investment Act (WIA).

The Council will provide advice to the Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training regarding the overall operation and administration of the Native American employment and training programs authorized under WIA title I, section 166, as well as the implementation of other programs providing services to Native American youth and adults under this act. The Assistant Secretary views the Council as the primary vehicle to accomplish the Department’s commitment to work in partnership with the Indian and Native American community on employment and training issues.

The Council shall consist of no fewer than 17 members representing Indians, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians. These members shall be appointed by the Secretary from among individuals nominated by Indian tribes or Indian, Alaska Native, or Native Hawaiian organizations. An equitable geographic distribution will be sought, including representation of both tribes and non-tribal Native American organizations. Council members shall not be compensated and shall not be deemed to be employees of the United States.

The Council shall function solely as an advisory body, and in compliance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. Its charter will be filed under the Act 15 days from the date of this publication.

Interested persons are invited to submit comments regarding the renewal of the Native American Employment and Training Council. Such comments should be addressed to: James C. DeLuca, Chief, Division of Indian and Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Room N-4641, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20210. The voice telephone number is (202) 219-8502, ext. 119 (this is not a toll-free number).
