

and records, which are filed in appropriate file folders.

Retrievability: By name, address, and claim number.

Safeguards: We will employ a number of security measures to minimize the risk of unauthorized access to or disclosure of personal data in the proposed system. These measures include the use of passwords and access codes to enter the computer system which will maintain the data, and storage of the computerized records and paper records in secured areas that are accessible only to employees who require the information in performing their official duties. Paper documents are stored either in lockable file cabinets within locked rooms or in otherwise secured areas. In addition, we will require contract employees to comply with the safeguards that must be followed to protect the data.

Retention and Disposal: The files are maintained at the Cerro Grande Fire Assistance Claims Office until completion of a claim. After such time, the files will be transferred to FEMA, 500 C Street, SW., Washington, DC for three years, and then they will be transferred to the appropriate Federal Records Center for seven years until they are destroyed. Means of disposal are appropriate to the storage medium (e.g., erasure of disks, shredding of paper records, etc.)

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESSES:

Director of the Cerro Grande Fire Assistance Claims Office, New Mexico; and FEMA, room 840, 500 C Street, SW., Washington, DC 20472.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

An individual can find out whether this system of records contains information about him/her by writing to the system manager at the address shown above and providing his/her name and address. Inquiries should be addressed to the System Manager. Written requests should be clearly marked, "Privacy Act Request" on the envelope and letter. Include full name, some type of appropriate personal identification, and current address.

When requesting notification of records in person, the individual should be able to provide some acceptable identification, such as a driver's license, passport, employing office's identification card, military identification card, student identification card or other identification data.

RECORDS ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Same as notification procedures described above. Individuals requesting access to their records should also reasonably describe the record(s) they are seeking.

CONTESTING RECORDS PROCEDURE:

Same as notification procedures described above. Individuals contesting the contents of a record in the system should also reasonably describe the record(s), specify the information being contested, and state the corrective action sought with supporting justification showing how the record is untimely, incomplete, inaccurate, or irrelevant. FEMA Privacy Act regulations are located at 44 C.F.R. Part 6.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Information in this system is obtained from claimants seeking compensation under the Cerro Grande Fire Assistance Act, P.L. 106-246, attorneys, claims adjusters, inspectors and appraisers, insurance companies, medical officials, and Federal, State, and local agencies.
