

resided in Bosnia-Herzegovina) in the United States who believe that their particular circumstances make return to Bosnia-Herzegovina unsafe. Such avenues may include, but are not limited to, asylum or withholding or removal.

How Does the Termination of TPS Affect Former TPS Beneficiaries?

After the designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina for TPS is terminated on February 10, 2001, those aliens who are nationals of Bosnia-Herzegovina (and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Bosnia-Herzegovina) will revert back to the immigration status they had prior to TPS, unless they have been granted another immigration status. The stay of removal and eligibility for employment authorization due to the designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina for TPS will no longer be available. The termination of the TPS designation for Bosnia-Herzegovina, however, will not affect any pending applications for other forms of immigration relief.

Those persons who were granted TPS under the Bosnia-Herzegovina designation may begin accruing unlawful presence as of February 10, 2001, if they have not been granted any other immigration benefit or have no application for such a benefit pending. Aliens who accrue certain periods of unlawful presence in the United States may be barred from admission to the United States under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i) of the Act. See 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(9)(B)(i).

Notice of 6-month Extension and Termination of Designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina Under the TPS Program

By the authority vested in me as Attorney General under section 244(b)(3) of the Act, I have consulted with the appropriate agencies of Government concerning conflict and security conditions in Bosnia-Herzegovina. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3). Based on these consultations, I have determined that Bosnia-Herzegovina no longer meets the conditions for designation of TPS under section 233(b)(1) of the Act. See 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1).

I understand that, although Bosnia-Herzegovina is still rebuilding from the war, persons can return to Bosnia-Herzegovina in safety. In view of the recommendations of the Departments of Justice and State for termination, I terminate the designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina under the TPS program. However, Since I did not make this determination at least 60 days before the expiration of the designation, the designation is automatically extended for 6 months, until February 10, 2001.

Accordingly, I order as follows:

(1) The designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina for TPS under section 244(b) of the Act is terminated effective February 10, 2001.

(2) I estimate that there are no more than 400 nationals of Bosnia-Herzegovina (and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Bosnia-Herzegovina) who have been previously granted TPS.

(3) Information concerning the termination of the TPS program for nationals of Bosnia-Herzegovina (and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Bosnia-Herzegovina) will be available at local Service offices upon publication of this notice or at the Service's website at <http://www.ins.usdoj.gov>.
