FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[Docket No. R-1081]

Privacy Act of 1974; Publication of Notice of Systems of Records and Amendment of Existing Systems of Records

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Notice; publication of two new systems of records and the amendment of one system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board) is publishing notice of two new systems of records, entitled: "Benefits Records" (BGFRS-29), and "Academic Assistance Program Files" (BGFRS-30); as well as amendments to "Medical Records" (BGFRS-3). We invite public comment on this notice.

DATES: The new systems of records and amendments to the existing system of records will become effective without further notice, on October 10, 2000, unless comments dictate otherwise.

ADDRESSES: Comments, which should refer to Docket No. R-1081, may be mailed to Ms. Jennifer J. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Elaine M. Boutilier, Managing Senior Counsel, Legal Division (202/452-2418), or Chris Fields, Manager, Human Resources Function, Management Division (202/452-3654), Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20551. For users of the Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD) only, contact Janice Simms at 202/452-4984.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The establishment of the new systems of records and amendments to one existing system of records result from a review of the Board's information practices conducted in accordance with the President's May 14, 1998, memorandum on privacy and information in federal records.

Unlike most Federal government agencies whose personnel files are maintained by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the Board maintains its own personnel-related files because the Board has independent statutory authority to hire staff and set the salary and benefit terms for its staff. Accordingly, the personnel-related files of Board employees are not contained in the government-wide systems of records published by OPM. Nevertheless, the Board's personnel-related files are used in much the same manner as those of other federal employees. Accordingly, after reviewing the routine uses for the existing system of records, the Board has determined to adopt many of the routine uses that are used in OPM's government-wide systems of records.

New Systems of Records

The Benefits Records contain information concerning each employee's benefits, such as health insurance, life insurance, and flexible spending accounts. These records were previously part of each employee's General Personnel File, but a review of record-keeping practices indicated that they should be maintained in a separate file. Accordingly, the Board is publishing a new system of records to describe the information maintained in these separate files.

The system of records for the Academic Assistance Program contains records concerning an employee's external and internal training, and any reimbursements made for such training.

Revised System of Records

The revisions to the existing system of records, Medical Records, incorporate information needed as a result of the Board's adoption of the Drug-Free Workplace Plan and revise the routine uses based on OPM's routine uses for the equivalent government-wide system of records.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), a report of these actions is being filed with the Chair of the House Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, the Chair of the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs, and the Office of Management and Budget.
