Conveyance of Mineral Interests in California

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of segregation.

SUMMARY: The private land described in this notice, aggregating 320 acres, is segregated and made unavailable for filings under the general mining laws and the mineral leasing laws to determine its suitability for conveyance of the reserved mineral interest pursuant to section 209 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of October 21, 1976.

The mineral interests will be conveyed in whole or in part upon favorable mineral examination.

The purpose is to allow consolidation of surface and subsurface of minerals ownership where there are no known mineral values or in those instances where the reservation interferes with or precludes appropriate nonmineral development and such development is a more beneficial use of the land than the mineral development.

AGENCY: Minerals Management Service (MMS), Interior.

ACTION: Notice of major portion prices.

SUMMARY: Final regulations for valuing gas produced from Indian leases, published on August 10, 1999, require MMS to determine major portion values and notify industry by publishing the values in the Federal Register. The regulations also require MMS to publish a due date for industry to pay additional royalty based on the major portion value. This notice provides the major portion values and due dates for March and April 2000 production months.

EFFECTIVE DATES: January 1, 2000.

ADDRESSES: See FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section below.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 10, 1999, MMS published a final rule titled "Amendments to Gas Valuation Regulations for Indian Leases," with an effective date of January 1, 2000 (64 FR 43506). The gas regulations apply to all gas production from Indian (tribal or allotted) oil and gas leases (except leases on the Osage Indian Reservation).

The rule requires that MMS publish major portion prices for each designated area not associated with an index zone for each production month beginning January 2000 along with a due date for additional royalty payments. See 30 CFR 206.174(a)(4)(ii) (64 FR 43520, August 10, 1999). If additional royalties are due based on a published major payment interest under 30 CFR 218.54 (1999) will accrue from the due date until payment is made and an amended Form MMS-2014 is received. The table below lists the major portion prices for

SUMMARY: The Judicial Review Commission on Foreign Asset Control ("Commission") will hold public hearings in connection with its statutory mandate under the Foreign Narcotics Kingpin Designation Act ("Narcotics Kingpin Act") on September 21-22 and October 2-3, 2000. Under the Narcotics Kingpin Act, the Commission is required to conduct "a review of the current judicial, regulatory, and administrative authorities relating to the blocking of assets of foreign persons by the United States Government," and "a detailed examination and evaluation of the remedies available to United States persons affected by the blocking of assets of foreign persons by the United States Government." In addition to the public hearings, the Commission invites interested parties to submit written statements regarding the matters under review by the Commission.

DATES: September 21-22 and October 2-3, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David H. Laufman, Staff Director & Deputy Chief Counsel, Judicial Review Commission on Foreign Asset Control, at (202) 305-1590, or by e-mail at david.laufman@usdoj.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Commission was established pursuant to Title VIII of the Foreign Narcotics Kingpin Designation Act (Pub. L. 106-120), which was enacted in December 1999 as part of the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2000 ("Act"). Section 804 of the Act requires the President to publicly designate certain foreign persons as "significant foreign narcotics traffickers," and section 805(b) of the Act requires the blocking of all property and interests in property owned or controlled by such designated traffickers and certain other foreign persons designated by the Secretary of the Treasury. In addition, section 805(c) of the Act prohibits "[a]ny transaction or dealing by a United States person, or within the United States, in property or interests in property of any significant narcotics trafficker * * * and foreign persons designated by the Secretary of the Treasury * * *"

Of particular significance to the Commission's work is section 805(f) of the Act, which states that "[t]he determinations, identifications, findings and designations made pursuant to section 804 and subsection (b) of [section 805] shall not be subject to judicial review." (Emphasis added.)

Under section 810(c) of the Act, the Commission is required to conduct (1) "a review of the current judicial, regulatory, and administrative authorities relating to the blocking of assets of foreign persons by the United States Government"; and (2) "a detailed examination and evaluation of the remedies available to United States persons affected by the blocking of assets of foreign persons by the United States Government."

In addition to this statutory mandate, Congress instructed the Commission, in the Conference Report that accompanied final passage of the Act, "to examine and report on at least the following constitutional and other issues:

(1) Whether reasonable protections of innocent U.S. businesses are available under the regime currently in place that is utilized to carry out the provisions of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act ("IEEPA");

(2) whether advance notice prior to blocking of one's assets is required as a matter of constitutional due process;

(3) whether there are reasonable opportunities under the current IEEPA regulatory regime and the Administrative Procedures Act for an erroneous blocking of assets or mistaken listing under IEEPA to be remedied;

(4) whether the level of proof that is required under the current judicial, regulatory, or administrative scheme is adequate to protect legitimate business interests from irreparable financial harm;

(5) whether there is constitutionally adequate accessibility to the courts to challenge agency actions under IEEPA, or the designation of persons or entities under IEEPA;

(6) whether there are remedial measures and legislative amendments
