

(such as insurance and securities companies) that do not file financial reports with the Federal Reserve System. The Federal Reserve solicits comment on whether such a materiality test would be helpful, and, if so, how this should be defined. The FR Y-6 and FR Y-7 include organization charts, which would collect information about entities that would not be reportable on the proposed FR Y-10 and FR Y-10F. The Federal Reserve solicits comment on whether reporters would find it easier to annotate the organization charts to show the entities that are not reportable on the proposed new reports or to list those entities separately.

The proposed FR Y-10 and FR Y-10F would collect information about a reportable entity's primary activity, and the proposed definition of 'primary' is based on revenue. The Federal Reserve solicits comment on whether gross or net revenue is appropriate for this definition or, as an alternative, whether assets should be used.

The Federal Reserve also solicits comments on whether reporters would find NAICS codes useful in describing the activities of their nonbanking entities.
