IV. Background

CARAT was established in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act as a subcommittee under the auspices of the EPA National Advisory Council for Environmental Policy and Technology (NACEPT). The purpose of CARAT is to provide advice and counsel to the Administrator of EPA and the Secretary of Agriculture regarding strategic approaches for pest management planning and tolerance reassessment for pesticides as required by the Food Quality Protection Act of 1996 (FQPA). CARAT is preceded by the Tolerance Reassessment Advisory Committee and is guided by the principles set forth by the Vice President for EPA and the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) to work together to ensure smooth implementation of FPQA through use of sound science, consultation with stakeholders, increased transparency, and reasonable transition for agriculture. CARAT is co-chaired by EPA Deputy Administrator Michael McCabe and USDA Deputy Secretary Richard Rominger. CARAT is composed of experts that include farmers, environmental/public interest groups, public health officials, pediatric experts, pesticide trade associations and manufacturers, food processors and distributors, academicians, and tribal, State and local governments.

II. Background

During fiscal year 1999, EPA completed reregistration eligibility decisions for 14 pesticides, and issued Reregistration Eligibility Decision (RED) documents for the pesticide active ingredients listed below. The Agency published a Notice in the Federal Register on December 3, 1999 (64 FR 67902) (FRL-6395-6), announcing the availability of RED documents for six of these pesticides (Captan, S-Ethyl dipropylthiocarbamate (EPTC), Folpet, Niclosamide and 3-trifluoromethyl-4-nitrophenol (TFM or Lamprecide), and Pebulate). These REDs were issued as final documents with a 60-day comment period, which closed on February 1, 2000. In these REDs, EPA provided its regulatory position on the current registered uses of these pesticides and set forth certain requirements for product reregistration eligibility.

The Agency also published separate Federal Register notices announcing the availability of REDs for Sulfotepp (a voluntary cancellation) on December 22, 1999 (64 FR 71754) (FRL-6391-2), and triphenyltin hydroxide (TPTH) on December 1, 1999 (64 FR 67265) (FRL-6395-3), the latter for 90 days of public comment. EPA will announce in the Federal Register the cancellation of Sulfotepp when it becomes effective in September 2002.

No comments were submitted for the following RED documents:

- Folpet
- Pebulate

Comments were submitted for the following REDs but did not significantly affect EPA's regulatory position:

- EPTC
- Niclosamide
- TFM
- TPTH
- Sulfotepp

These comments and the Agency's responses are included in the dockets for these pesticides.
