2. At 9 a.m. on November 15, 2000, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, other segregations of record, and the requirements of applicable law, the public lands withdrawn by the Executive orders listed in Paragraph 1 shall be opened to the operation of the public land laws generally and the National Forest System lands withdrawn by the Executive orders listed in Paragraph 1 shall be opened to such forms of disposition as may be law be made of National Forest System lands. All valid applications received at or prior to 9 a.m. on November 15, 2000, shall be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. Those received thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

3. At 9 a.m. on November 15, 2000, the lands withdrawn by the Executive orders listed in Paragraph 1 shall be opened to location and entry under the United States mining laws for nonmetalliferous minerals, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, other segregations of record, and the requirements of applicable law. Appropriation of the lands that were withdrawn pursuant to the Executive orders listed in Paragraph 1 under the general mining laws for nonmetalliferous mining prior to the date and time of restoration is unauthorized. Any such attempted appropriation, including attempted adverse possession under 30 U.S.C. 38 (1994), shall vest no rights against the United States. Acts required to establish a location and to initiate a right of possession are governed by State law where not in conflict with Federal law. The Bureau of Land Management will not intervene in disputes between rival locators over possessory rights since Congress has provided for such determinations in local courts.

Dated: September 15, 2000.
