Granite State Gas Transmission, Inc.; Notice of Compliance Filing

October 25, 2000.

Take notice that on October 18, 2000, Granite State Gas Transmission, Inc. (Granite State) tendered for filing a letter with the Commission in response to Order No. 587-L informing the Commission that Granite State's currently effective gas tariff contains provisions permitting imbalance netting and trading by shippers.

Granite States states that copies of this filing have been sent to Granite State's shippers and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

GridFlorida LLC, Florida Power & Light Co., Florida Power Corporation, and Tampa Electric Co.; Supplemental Notice of Filing

October 25, 2000.

Take notice that on October 16, 2000, Florida Power & Light Company, Florida Power Corporation, and Tampa Electric Company (collectively, the Applicants), pursuant to Sections 203 and 205 of the Federal Power Act, jointly filed their Order No. 2000 compliance filing providing for the creation of a Regional Transmission Organization (RTO). In a Notice of Filing issued October 20, 2000, the date for interventions, comments, and protests with respect to that filing was established as November 20, 2000.

The Applicants have requested, to facilitate the continuing collaborative process, that interested parties be permitted additional time to submit their comments on the portion of their Application for which an additional filing will be made on December 15, 2000.

Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest should file a motion to intervene, comments, or protests with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions, comments and protests with respect to the matters for which Applicants have not requested expedited treatment should be filed on or before November 20, 2000. All such motions, comments and protests with respect to the matters for which Applicants have not requested expedited treatment will be due within 30 days from the date Applicants make their additional filing implementing details of their RTO proposal. Beginning November 1, 2000, comments and protests may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/efi/doorbell.htm>.

[Docket No. RP01-60-000]

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

October 25, 2000.

Take notice that on October 20, 2000, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) tendered for filing to be part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, the tariff sheets listed on Appendix A to the filing, to be effective November 20, 2000.

Natural states that these sheets were filed is to make several minor revisions to its Tariff, including changes to the General Terms and Conditions and to Natural's Rate Schedules IBS, FFTS, FRSS, NSS and DSS. These changes correct several provisions of Natural's Tariff and clarify others, conform various provisions of Natural's Tariff to each other or incorporate current Commission policy.

Natural requests waiver of the Commission's Regulations to the extent necessary to permit the tariff sheets submitted to become effective November 20, 2000.

Natural states that copies of the filing have been mailed to its customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/efi/doorbell.htm>.
