

tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, Third Revised Sheet No. 82, to be effective on January 1, 2001.

ALNG states that the purpose of this filing is to revise the phone number of the person to whom complaints should be directed regarding ALNG's compliance with the Commission's gas marketing affiliate rules and to provide for the posting on ALNG's Internet Web site of information regarding shared operating employees and shared facilities, as well as any physical office space barriers and card key protections that may be necessitated by virtue of shared office space, consistent with Commission precedent.

ALNG states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all affected customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments and protests may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. Consumers Energy Company Michigan Electric Transmission Company; Notice of Filing

November 30, 2000.

Take notice that on November 13, 2000, Consumers Energy Company (Consumers) and Michigan Electric Transmission Company (Michigan Transco), tendered for filing a Michigan Transco Open Access Transmission Tariff (OATT) which is to supersede, for the most part, Consumers' OATT (Consumers FERC Electric Tariff No. 6). The revision is to reflect the proposed transfer of Consumer's transmission assets to Michigan Transco. Copies of the filing were served upon all customers under Consumers' OATT and upon the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Consumers and Michigan Transco request that the filed OATT be allowed to take effect on the date of the transfer of those assets, expected to occur approximately February 1, 2001.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest such filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions and protests should be filed on or December 8, 2000. Protests will be considered by the Commission to determine the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. [Docket No. EL01-16-000]

Pontook Operating Limited Partnership, Complainant, v. Public Service Company of New Hampshire, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

December 1, 2000.

Take notice that on November 30, 2000, Pontook Operating Limited Partnership (Pontook) filed a complaint and request for relief under section 206 of the Federal Power Act (FPA), 16 U.S.C. § 824e(2000), alleging that its transmission agreement with PSNH subjects it to unjust and unreasonable transmission rates in violation of section 205 of the FPA and the Commission's transmission pricing policies.

Pontook requests that the Commission (1) terminate its transmission agreement with PSNH effective November 1, 2000, or in the alternative, terminate its transmission agreement with PSNH effective immediately; (2) allow it to take transmission service under the New England Power Pool (NEPOOL) Open Access Transmission Tariff and Northeast Utilities' (NU) Open Access Transmission Tariff; and (3) order PSNH to refund to Pontook all transmission charges that Pontook paid pursuant to the Transmission agreement since the Commission's 1992 order approving PSNH's merger with NU; or in the alternative, order PSNH to refund to Pontook transmission charges that PSNH collected improperly from Pontook purportedly pursuant to the Transmission Agreement since (a) the Commission's May 1996 issuance of Order No. 888, or (b) the December 1996 filing of the NEPOOL Tariff, or (c) November 1, 2000—the natural termination date of the transmission agreement between Pontook and PSNH.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests must be filed on or before December 20, 2000. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding.
