INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

U. S.-Singapore Free Trade Agreement: Potential Trade and Economic Effects (Inv. No. 332-422)

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Institution of investigation and notice of opportunity to submit comments

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 6, 2000.

SUMMARY: Following receipt of a request on November 27, 2000, from the United States Trade Representative (USTR), pursuant to authority under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930, the Commission instituted investigation No. 332-422, U.S.-Singapore Free Trade Agreement: Potential Trade and Economic Effects.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Arona Butcher (202-205-3255), Office of Economics; or William Gearhart of the Office of the General Counsel (202-205-3091) for information on the legal aspects of this investigation. Hearing impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

Background:

The USTR requested that the Commission conduct an investigation and provide advice as to the economic impact of a U.S.-Singapore FTA. As requested by USTR, the Commission's report on the investigation will include the following:

- A concise description of the Singapore economy, patterns of trade with the United States and other major trade partners, and the tariff and investment relationship between the United States and Singapore.
- A quantitative analysis of the likely trade and economic impact of a United States-Singapore FTA by sector.
- A supplementary qualitative analysis of the impact of the U.S.-Singapore FTA on product sectors to be identified by USTR.
- A discussion of potential trade and economic effects of the elimination of barriers to trade in services under the United States-Singapore FTA.
- A discussion of potential trade and economic effects of changes in intellectual property rights regimes under the United States-Singapore FTA.
- A discussion of potential trade and economic effects of changes in rules concerning foreign direct investment under the United States-Singapore FTA.

The Commission plans to submit its report, U.S.-Singapore Free Trade Agreement: Potential Trade and Economic Effects on January 12, 2001. USTR indicated that portions of the report will be classified as confidential.

Written Submissions

The Commission does not plan to hold a public hearing in connection with this investigation. However, interested persons are invited to submit written statements concerning matters to be addressed in the report. Commercial or financial information that a person desires the Commission to treat as confidential must be submitted on separate sheets of paper, each clearly marked "Confidential Business Information" at the top. The Commission's Rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of section 201.8 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.8). All submissions requesting confidential treatment must conform with the requirements of § 201.6 of the Commission's Rules (19 CFR 201.6). All written statements, except for confidential business information will be made available for inspection by interested persons in the Office of the Secretary to the Commission. To be assured of consideration, written statements relating to the Commission's report should be submitted at the earliest possible date and should be received not later than December 20, 2000. All submissions should be addressed to the Secretary, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW, Washington DC 20436. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means.

Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>).

Issued: December 7, 2000.

Donna R. Koehnke,
Secretary.

NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION

[Notice 00-141]

Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Sex in Education Programs or Activities Receiving Federal Financial Assistance

AGENCY: National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).
ACTION: Notice of programs and activities receiving financial assistance from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration that are covered by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended.

SUMMARY: In accordance with subpart F of the final common rule for the enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, 20 U.S.C. 1681, et seq. ("Title IX") this notice lists those programs and activities that receive financial assistance from NASA and are covered by Title IX. Title IX prohibits recipients of Federal financial assistance from discriminating on the basis of sex in education programs or activities. Subpart F requires each Federal agency that awards Federal financial assistance to publish in the Federal Register a notice of the programs covered by the Title IX regulations within sixty (60) days after the effective date (September 29, 2000) of the final common rule. The final common rule for the enforcement of Title IX was published in the Federal Register by twenty (20) Federal agencies, including NASA, on August 30, 2000, (65 FR 52857-52895).

DATES: Effective December 12, 2000.
ADDRESSES: Address comments concerning this notice to the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs, Code EI, NASA Headquarters, 300 E Street, SW, Room 4W31, Washington, DC 20546.
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Frederick J. Dalton, 202-358-0958, or TDD: 202-358-3748.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title IX prohibits recipients of Federal financial assistance from discriminating on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities. Specifically, the statute states that "[n]o person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance," with specific exceptions for various entities, programs, and activities. 20 U.S.C. 1681(a). This statute was modeled after Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq., which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, and national origin in all programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance. The goal of Title IX is to ensure that Federal funds are not utilized for and do not support sex-based discrimination, and that individuals have equal opportunities, without regard to sex, to pursue, engage or participate in, and benefit from academic, extracurricular, research, occupational training, employment, or other educational programs or activities.

List of Federal Financial Assistance Administered by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to Which Title IX Applies

Note: All recipients of Federal financial assistance from GSA are subject to Title IX, but Title IX's anti-discrimination prohibitions are limited to the educational components of the recipient's program or activity, if any. Failure to list a type of Federal assistance below shall not mean, if Title IX is otherwise applicable, that a program or activity is not covered by Title IX.

1. Grants that provides funding to recipients for the purpose of supporting or stimulating research, education, and training, without substantial involvement by NASA in the activity
