Electronic Filing by Investment Advisers; Amendments to Form ADV; Technical Amendments

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Technical amendments to final regulations.

SUMMARY: The Commission is making technical revisions to Forms ADV, ADV-W, ADV-H ADV-NR and related rules under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act"). These revisions are administrative corrections to amendments adopted by the Commission in Electronic Filing by Investment Advisers; Amendments to Form ADV, Investment Advisers Act Release No. 1897 (Sept. 12, 2000) [65 FR 57438 (Sept. 22, 2000)].

EFFECTIVE DATE: The rule and form corrections will become effective on January 1, 2001.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jennifer B. McHugh, Special Counsel, at (202) 942-0691, Office of Investment Adviser Regulation, Division of Investment Management, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW, Washington, DC 20549-0506.

I. Supplementary Information

We recently adopted new rules and rule amendments under the Advisers Act to require that investment advisers make filings electronically through the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD).¹ We also amended Forms ADV and ADV-W to prepare them for electronic filing. At the same time, we adopted Form ADV-H, an application for a hardship exemption from electronic filing, and Form ADV-NR, an appointment of agent for service of process by non-resident general partners and managing agents of investment advisers.

Following adoption of the amendments, we conducted an IARD Pilot Program to test the operation of the new filing system prior to the January 1, 2001 transition to electronic filing. The Pilot Program ran from October 17, 2000 through November 9, 2000. Approximately 100 SEC-registered advisers participated in the Pilot Program.

During the Pilot Program, the Commission staff held weekly conference calls with Pilot filers and operated a telephone hotline to answer Pilot filers' questions. The Pilot filers' feedback raised certain administrative issues regarding our new investment adviser rules and forms. We therefore are making minor technical amendments to the rules and forms to address these administrative issues. The technical amendments, which are outlined in detail below, generally (i) clarify filing instructions in the rules and forms, (ii) provide notice to filers of administrative law requirements, and (iii) eliminate minor internal inconsistencies within these forms.

II. Certain Findings Under The Administrative Procedure Act

Under the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"), notice of proposed rulemaking is not required when an agency for good cause finds "that notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest."² Because the amendments adopted today only clarify instructions, provide additional notices to filers and eliminate administrative inconsistencies in the forms, the Commission believes they are the sort of minor rule amendments about which the public is not particularly interested. Consequently, the Commission finds that publishing these amendments for comment is unnecessary.

The effective date for the technical amendments is January 1, 2001. Under the APA, we may establish an effective date less than 30 days after the publication of the amendments if we find good cause to do so.³ We have required that advisers begin using revised forms on January 1, 2001. On that date, advisers will begin transitioning to electronic filing through IARD. We believe the rules and forms should be corrected as of the date advisers begin using them. Because the amendments are technical and do not have a significant substantive impact, we have determined that the need for an administratively efficient transition to electronic filing through IARD outweighs any possible disadvantage to investment advisers from having these amendments become effective with less than 30 days' notice. Therefore, we find that there is good cause for these technical amendments to become effective on January 1, 2001.
