

rules.⁴ The Phlx notes that the language of new Commentary .01, however, is not intended to require a ROT to trade with another ROT at a price at which the ROT is unwilling to trade, unless otherwise required by Phlx rule(s).

The Phlx believes that the conduct prohibited in proposed new Commentary .01 to Rule 707 is fundamentally inconsistent with the obligations of members to their customers and each other, and is contrary to the public interest in fair and efficient options markets.⁵

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act⁶ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5)⁷ in particular, in that it is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices and to promote just and equitable principles of trade by prohibiting members, member organizations, or persons associated with or employed by members or member organizations from engaging in harassment and other improper behavior because of listing or competitive practices.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any inappropriate burden on competition.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal

⁴ Listing procedures are in Exchange Rules 500 et seq. for options and Exchange Rules 800 et seq. for equities. The Exchange intends to amend or adopt rules regarding the listing of options. See Exchange Act Release No. 43268 (September 11, 2000).

⁵ New Commentary .01 to Phlx Rule 707 will apply only to members, member organizations, their employees, and associated persons. The Exchange intends to incorporate into its codes of conduct applicable to employees, board members, and members of Exchange committees, rules that are similar in import to new Commentary .01. The Exchange expects to file with the Commission a proposed rule change covering these additional individuals in the near future. ⁶ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b).

⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

A. by order approve the proposed rule change, or

B. institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0609. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying at the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Exchange. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-Phlx-00-94 and should be submitted by January 18, 2001.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.⁸

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.
