

simultaneously filed at that time. Those received thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

3. At 9 a.m. on January 29, 2001, the lands will be opened to location and entry under the United States mining laws subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, other segregations of record, and the requirements of applicable law. Appropriation of any of the lands described in this order under the general mining laws prior to the date and time of restoration is unauthorized. Any such attempted appropriation, including attempted adverse possession under 30 U.S.C. 38 (1994), shall vest no rights against the United States. Acts required to establish a location and to initiate a right of possession are governed by State law where not in conflict with Federal law. The Bureau of Land Management will not intervene in disputes between rival locators over possessory rights since Congress has provided for such determination in local courts.

Public Land Order No. 7475; Partial Revocation of the Geological Survey; Order Dated July 25, 1952; Washington

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Public land order.

SUMMARY: This order partially revokes a Geological Survey order insofar as it affects 1,159.54 acres of lands withdrawn for Bureau of Land Management Power Site Classification No. 426. The lands are no longer needed for the purpose for which they were withdrawn. This action will open 56.22 acres to surface entry. These lands have been and will remain open to mining and mineral leasing. The remaining 1,103.32 acres of lands are included in overlapping withdrawals or have been conveyed out of Federal ownership, and will remain closed to surface entry and mining.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 12, 2001.
