Vessel Proposed for Waiver of the U.S.-Build Requirement

(1) Name of vessel and owner for which waiver is requested. Name of vessel: ELIZA. Owner: Herbert W. Goodall, III.

(2) Size, capacity and tonnage of vessel. According to the applicant: "Gross 68 Tons, Net 65 Tons, Length 75.5', Breadth 20.6', Depth 8.2'."

(3) Intended use for vessel, including geographic region of intended operation and trade. According to the applicant:

ELIZA operates as a term charter vessel, taking eight guests or fewer, on one week or longer cruises, mainly in New England, but also south from New England as far as South Florida.

As above, the main areas of operation for ELIZA are the Atlantic seaboard states of New England during the months of June through September: New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine. But, the waters of New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida come into play from time to time as the vessel runs north and south. The vessel's main winter operations area is the Eastern Caribbean, so the states south of New England come into play solely during the yacht's semi-annual delivery between her main theaters of operation.

(4) Date and Place of construction and (if applicable) rebuilding. Date of construction: 1981. Place of construction: Poole, Dorset, United Kingdom.

(5) A statement on the impact this waiver will have on other commercial passenger vessel operators. According to the applicant: "ELIZA is not engaged in the day charter business so the impact on other commercial passenger vessels would be minimal to non-existent."

(6) A statement on the impact this waiver will have on U.S. shipyards. According to the applicant: "There are no shipyards, that I know of, building vessels like or even similar to ELIZA."
