Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), notice is hereby given that the Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) is republishing Subsystem G of "The Immigration and Naturalization Service Index System, JUSTICE/INS-001,"—last published October 5, 1993 (58 FR 51847)—as a separate system of records to be entitled "National Automated Immigration Lookout System (NAILS)." The system was formerly entitled, Service Lookout System. Subsystem G is also being redescribed to cancel two sub-subsystems which are no longer required, as the records are now maintained in other systems of records. Records maintained in the Application and petition System are now maintained in the Computer Linked Application Petition System JUSTICE/INS-013. Records maintained in the Correspondence Control Index are now maintained in the JUSTICE/INS-001, Subsystem G, Correspondence Control and Task Tracking System.

NAILS is being redescribed to improve the clarity and accuracy of the system description. Specifically, INS proposes to: (1) Remove inapplicable routine use disclosure provisions; (2) add four routine use disclosures (i.e., C, H, I, and J). (Routine use C will assist INS with its law enforcement functions. Routine use H will allow contractors working for INS to have access to the information in this system of records. Routine use I allows disclosure to former employees when the Department of Justice requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee that is necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility. Finally, routine use J allows disclosure to the Courts and adjudicative bodies to protect the litigation interest of the INS; (3) modify one routine use (D). Routine use D has been revised to remove the applicant, petitioner, or respondent since no routine use disclosure provision is necessary to disclose to these individuals; and (4) make other minor corrections and edits to reflect the current status of this system of records.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a (e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which to comment on the system of records. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibility under the Act, requires a 40-day period in which to conclude its review of the system. Therefore, please submit any comment by (30 days from the publication date of this notice). The public OMB and the Congress are invited to submit any comments to Mary Cahill, Management Analyst, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530 (Room 1400, National Place Building).
